

C. U. TO WELCOME MAJOR LANPHIER AS OLD ALUMNUS

University to Entertain Noted Air Service Man at Luncheon

ARTS GRADUATE CLASS '11

Major Thomas G. Lanphier of the 1911 Class of the College of Arts and Sciences is to be welcomed back to his alma mater tomorrow morning by the regents and deans of the university when he reaches Omaha in company with the Wilkins Transpolar expedition, on their way to the north-land.

A luncheon at which President W. J. Grace is to speak, is scheduled for the Chamber of Commerce Saturday noon at 12:15. The regents and deans of the university and Major Francis M. Brannan, professor of military science and tactics at Creighton, who was a classmate of Major Lanphier's at West Point, are to attend the luncheon.

Major Lanphier is a brother of Dr. Vernard A. Lanphier, a member of the faculty, Cyril C. Lanphier and Basil Lanphier, all Creighton men. He has for several years been one of the leading men in the army air service. He served overseas during the recent war and has since been commanding officer at Fort Sill, Okla., and later at Selfridge Field, Mt. Clemens, Mich., where he is now stationed.

Major Lanphier's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Lanphier live at 2535 Cass street, Omaha.

The Wilkins expedition is to leave at 4:20 Saturday afternoon for Seattle where they are to embark for Point Barrow, Alaska. At Point Barrow they are to pick up the arctic equipment which has been sent on from Detroit by freight, and then start the flight across the North Pole.

UNI WILLED $5,000 BY MRS. K. MURPHY

Creighton University was bequeathed $5,000 in the will of Mrs. Kathryn Murphy, 48, widow of the late Henry C. Murphy of Omaha, it became known January 28 when she died in St. Joseph's Hospital, following an operation.

Mrs. Murphy was a daughter of the late Richard O'Keefe. A few days before she went to the hospital, Mrs. Murphy called in an attorney and made her will.

On numerous previous occasions she had given the University financial aid and once instituted a perpetual scholarship fund of $2,000. Since her husband's death she had devoted herself diligently to aiding Catholic charities.

Her estate was estimated to exceed $40,000. Relatives and personal friends shared in a large portion of it but Creighton University, St. Agnes' church, St. Peter's church and St. James' Orphanage each received $5,000. Father Flanagan's Boys' Home received $1,000 and Holy Ghost church $1,000.

At the funeral of Mrs. Murphy January 30 at St. Peter's church, Fathers Grace, Corboy, Meyer and Finan from the University took part in the services.

HASTINGS TELLS LAWYERS THEY ARE LAZY CLASS

Judge Warren J. Hastings, former Dean of the University of Nebraska law school, declared in a lecture before the students of the college of law that lawyers were no exception to Emerson's general rule that man is as lazy as he dares to be. Judge Hastings spoke on the "Mistakes and Difficulties of a Young Lawyer in the Court Room."

"The greatest foe to all truth is man's desire to reach favorable conclusions," Judge Hastings declared, pointing out at the same time that the greatest and most essential implement that a lawyer could wield to success was an analytical mind—a clear understanding of the salient facts coupled with a knowledge of the law and its application.

The lecture of Judge Hastings is the second of a series arranged by Dean A. Te Poel to be delivered in the school of law, the first being given by Hon. E. P. Smith, ex-mayor of Omaha.

In the course of lectures arranged to be delivered are such outstanding men as John L. Kennedy, William F. Gurley, and Judge Ben Baker. The lectures will be delivered at intervals during the second semester.

Creighton To Welcome Trans-Polar Expeditioner As Alumnus Tomorrow

Major Thomas Lanphier, former Creighton student, and a brother of Dr. Vernard A. Lanphier of the Athletic Department's medical staff, is to be a member of the Wilkins trans-polar aerial expedition. This excellent likeness of Major Lanphier is published in the Creightonian by courtesy of the Omaha World Herald which paper is to publish the story of the flight daily, as called by special reporters of the North American Newspaper Alliance.

DISCIPLINE BOARD NAMES REGULATIONS

Drafts Set of Rules For All Creighton Social Functions and Dances

The Faculty Committee on Discipline and Social Affairs has issued a new set of rules and regulations to govern all student social functions. Dean Schuetz, in giving out the new set of regulations, said, "It is our purpose to protect the moral and spiritual interests of our students away from as well as in the class rooms." Father Schuetz said that chaperones of all social functions must be approved by the Faculty Committee and will be "empowered with the full authority of the university to see that the function is carried out in such a manner as protects the best interests of those present." Reprehensible conduct at any social function sponsored by student organizations will be referred to the Faculty Committee on Discipline.

The new rules as given out by the Dean are as follows:

1) APPROVAL.—No dance or social function shall be given by or under the auspices of the students in any college or school of the University, except that the same be sponsored by some student organization which is officially recognized by the University.

2) HOLDING SOCIAL FUNCTIONS.—No social function shall be held by any student organization on other than Tuesday or Friday evenings.

b) No social functions or dances are to be held during Lent, or in the week preceding semester examinations.

c) Not more than two dances may be given by any fraternity or other organization during the same semester.

d) No dance shall be advertised as 'Prom' except the Junior Promenade.

e) No dance at which admission is charged may be given by any individual student or any group of students.

3) PERMISSION.—A petition must be presented in writing to the faculty committee at least two weeks before the date of any proposed social function. No dance or social function may be held at any time without the approval of this committee. This regulation applies as well to dances and social functions that are not held in the Union club rooms.

4) SUPERVISION.—Every dance or social function must be chaperoned by two persons, to be approved by the committee.

5) CLOSING HOURS.—The closing hours of all social functions shall not be later than twelve o'clock, mid-

DEBATE COACH CHANGES LINEUP

Withdrawal of Carol Jones Causes Rearrangement of Team to Meet St. Louis

At last Tuesday's meeting of the varsity debate squad, Mr. Edwin M. Puls, professor of public speaking and coach of debating, announced a change in the personnel of the teams which will participate in the coming debates. The rearrangement is necessitated by the withdrawal from school of Carol Jones, who was slated for a berth on the affirmative team which will open the season next Friday night against St. Louis University.

Under the new lineup, the trio which will represent Creighton in the initial encounter will be selected at today's meeting of the following four: Louis Lipp, John Flanagan, Martin McCarthy and Bennie Morgan. The quartette has been intensively engaged in preparation for the last three weeks, and anyone of the four will be ready to take the stage at a moment's notice. Tuesday they defended the affirmative of the proposition, "Resolved, that the Constitution should be amended so as to give Congress the power to regulate Child Labor" against the assaults of the rest of the squad.

Charles Kearney, LL. B. '22, represented Creighton University at the dedication of the new law school building of the University of Southern California at Los Angeles February 4 and 5.

Kearney, former captain and coach of Creighton's basketball team, is living at the Hollywood Athletic club.

night, with the exception of the annual Junior Prom, which must close not later than 1 A. M. Every organization giving a dance shall make such arrangements as will enable all guests to be at home by twelve thirty A. M.

6) FINANCES.—The treasurer of organization in charge of social functions at which admission is charged shall within one week after the event takes place, file with the committee a full report of receipts and expenditures. Any surplus of funds after the payment of all bills shall go into the treasury of the Creighton Students Union. A complete statement of expenditures shall be made to the Dean of Men and published in the Creightonian.

STUDENT RETREAT PRONOUNCED MOST SUCCESSFUL HERE

Fr. Robinson Wins Hearts of Students By Masterful Oratory

800 RECEIVE COMMUNION

What was probably the most successful Retreat in the history of Creighton University came to a conclusion Sunday afternoon with Solemn Benediction, celebrated by the Rev. Fr. Wm. J. Grace, president of the University. To Father Robinson, who conducted the spiritual exercises, the students of Creighton University owe a debt that can only be repaid by following the way of life he laid down to them.

The most edifying sight of the entire three days was enacted in St. John's church Sunday morning when practically the entire Catholic student body of the University marched to the Communion rail and received the Blessed Sacrament. Father Schuetz, who had charge of the arrangements for the Retreat, said that ninety-five per cent of the Catholic students were in attendance on the initial exercise of the three day Retreat. The average attendance of the Catholic students for the entire three days was eighty-eight per cent.

Commenting on the success of the Retreat, Dean Schuetz declared, "This record will challenge that of any other Jesuit college in our Province. Not only the attendance, but especially the splendid spirit displayed by the students throughout the exercises is

Thank You

The Dean of Men takes this opportunity to thank the students who so ably assisted in making the Retreat so great a success. The Retreat was under student government control, and the following young men deserve special praise for the manner in which they conducted the whole affair and worked so strenuously for its happy results. Arts: John Gillin, Donald Merrick, Robert Kirlin, Alb. Van Hee, Carl Peter, Edwin Mars, Eugene Floersch, Joseph Lane, Patrick Snell, Robert Johnson, Dave Cavanaugh, Eugene Heer, and Barret Finn.

Medical School: Clarence Moran, Bernard Jacobberger, and Arnold McDermitt. Law: John Flanagan, John Dougherty. Dentistry: Albert Murray, James Maney. Pharmacy: Ernest Proscovec. Commerce: Arthur Meitz, Leo Berger, Laurence O'Donnell.

highly gratifying to me." Father Schuetz had words of special praise to the students who assisted him in making the Retreat such a splendid success. Father Robinson's talks on Holy Communion, and The Necessity of Daily Prayer were especially well received. Father Robinson laid special emphasis on the value and necessity of frequent Communion. Eloquent, masterful, and forceful, he brought home to each and every student, in language clear and simple, and abounding in rich and striking figures, the message of our salvation. At the conclusion of the Retreat Father Robinson bestowed upon those in attendance the Papal Blessing.

GIVENTER OFFERED VAUDEVILLE CONTRACT

William (Finegold) Giventer, law freshman, has been tendered a contract by Mable Walsler, whose act appeared on the Orpheum stage last week under the title "Mable Walsler and Boy Friends".

Miss Walsler sought Giventer and Louis Kaplan, both of whom have appeared before Omaha and Creighton audiences the past year in many dancing acts, including their interpretation of the Charleston.

Both were offered fancy contracts, covering a fifty-two week period, but Mr. Giventer declared he would finish his course in Creighton law college.

Mr. Kaplan is a former Creighton student. Both have appeared on the Orpheum stage here and elsewhere.

The manager of the Students Union has a number of part time jobs for students. Information may be had from Al Morrissey, Union Manager, at the club rooms, phone At 1907.

FR. McCORMICK WINS HIGH RECOGNITION

The Rev. John McCormick, S. J., formerly president of Creighton University, and now head of the philosophy department of Marquette university, has been chosen as a member of the executive council of the American Catholic Philosophical association for a term of two years. This signal recognition of our former president will be received with welcome by all who knew and loved Father McCormick during his years of service here.

The association of which Father McCormick has been chosen as an executive is one of the recent origin. It was formed January 5 at the Catholic University of America, Washington, D. C., when representatives of forty Catholic colleges and universities throughout nation assembled there for the purpose of its inception. The association, which will be incorporated in the District of Columbia as a learned society, has for its object "the promotion of research in the field of philosophy, with special emphasis on scholastic philosophy."

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Edward A. Pace, professor of philosophy and vice-president of the Catholic University, was elected president of the newly formed association. Among the other officers of the society are such prominent leaders in Catholic educational circles as the Rev. John M. Fox, S. J., of Holy Cross college; the Rev. Dr. James Ryan, of the Catholic University; and the Rev. Charles Miltner, C. S. C., of Notre Dame university. The visiting philosophers were welcomed to the University by the rector, the Rt. Rev. Bishop Thomas J. Shaahan, one of America's most prominent and energetic Catholic educators.

RELIGION DUES EASY MARCH 17

Father J. C. Flynn, dean of the Arts college, announces that students wishing to compete in the Bishop McGovern essay contest must turn in their papers before March 17. The Bishop McGovern essay contest is an annual event at Creighton university instituted by the Rt. Rev. Bishop P. A. McGovern, D. D., to encourage the study of religion among the students. Each year an apt and timely subject of a religious nature is chosen the object of the contest. This year the contestants will write upon "The Necessity of Religion in Education." This subject should prove one of lively interest as it is a question much discussed at the present time by thinking men and women the nation over. The winner of the contest will receive the Bishop McGovern Gold Medal. The judges of the contest will be announced soon, according to Dean Flynn, who is actively interested in making this annual event one of great interest for the students of the university.

Popular Student Transfers From C. U.

CLIFFORD NOLAN

Clifford Nolan, Creighton Law College senior, has transferred from Creighton to Drake University where he will finish his law course and graduate in June. Business is assigned as the reason for the change, according to Nolan.

"Cliff", as he is popularly known on the campus, has been a colorful figure at Creighton for the past four and one half years. His stellar work at center on the football team for three seasons won him distinction on mythical teams in the conference. In track he represented Creighton in the shot put, discus throw, and javelin throw and still holds the school record in the discus.

Nolan was the president's appointee to the Athletic Board as student representative this year, and was also a member of the "C" Club.

He was business manager of the "Bluejay" last year, and resigns as president of the Delta Kappa Delta fraternity to go to Drake, and is also a member of the Delta Theta Phi law fraternity.

CREIGHTON ON AIR SATURDAY EVENINGS

Educational, Musical, and Dramatic Presentations Part of Program

Educational lectures, musical entertainments and dramatic presentations are to be broadcasted every Saturday over WOAW station between 7:30 and 8 p. m. by Creighton men and women under auspices of the University.

Teachers from all schools and colleges of the University are to lecture on educational subjects from the popular point of view. News events of the day are to be discussed from the man will be the announcer. Creighton professors will do the lecturing. And Creighton students will provide the entertainment programs.

Lester Palmer, senior in the Creighton Law School, and known to radio audiences all over the continent as "L. P." the announcer of WOAW station, is to be at the microphone during the "Creighton Period" each Saturday night.

The first Creighton program is to be broadcast February 6 by Dr. James McDonald, professor of physiology in Creighton Medical School. His subject is "Headache". Dr. McDonald specialized in neurology at the Mayo clinic in Rochester, Minn. and studied in Europe before coming to Creighton five years ago.

The second program is to be headed by Dr. F. M. Duffy, assistant professor of bacteriology in the Medical School. Dr. Duffy's subject is "Vaccination and Smallpox" and is to be broadcast February 13.

Future programs are to be announced in the Creighton Courier and in the WOAW radio bulletin. Drama, fiction, athletics, public speaking, industry, commerce, the law, dentistry, medicine, sciences, languages, news events are general subjects from which the radio lectures are to be taken.

HANDBALL TOURNAMENT TO BE STAGED SOON

All men interested in Handball should turn in their names at Athletic Directors office. Applications for entrants should be in as soon as possible in order that the parings can be made. The tournament will probably run off of each bracket will meet in the finals for the handball championship of the school. There will be a singles and doubles tournament. Gold medals will be awarded to the winners of both the singles and doubles.

UNIVERSITY PLANS FITTING FOUNDERS' DAY SERVICES

Rev. D. P. O'Connor of Havelock, Nebr., to Deliver Sermon at Exercises

TO HONOR BENEFACTORS

Solemn requiem mass in honor of the University's founders is to be sung at 10 A. M. Monday, February 8, by the Rev. W. J. Grace, president of the University, in St. John's church. February 7 is the annual Founders' Day but because the date falls on Sunday the services are to be held Monday.

The Rev. D. P. O'Connor of Havelock, Nebr., is to deliver the sermon. The Rev. James W. Stensor pastor of St. Philomena's church, Omaha, is to be master of ceremonies.

Creighton University owes its origin to a bequest made by Mrs. Mary Lucretia Creighton, who died January 23, 1876. Her executors were directed to purchase a site and erect a building thereon in which a college, offering free tuition, was to be conducted. The college was named after her deceased husband, Edward Creighton, who had been a pioneer in the construction of telegraph lines in the west.

Out of this bequest, the executors turned over to Right Reverend James O'Connor, first Bishop of Omaha, land, building, and an endowment of $147,500. Bishop O'Connor called in the Jesuits to carry on the college and turned the trust over to the Creighton University, which was incorporated by them, August 14, 1879, under the general law of the State of Nebraska.

Classes were begun September 2nd, 1878, but owing to the primitive condition of education in Nebraska at the time, it was twelve years before the first class—the class of 1891—was graduated.

The subsequent development of Creighton University and the enlargement of its endowment are owing to the benefactions of Count John A. Creighton and his wife, Sarah Emily Creighton.

Additions were made to the original college building in 1888 and 1900. St. John's Church, the college chapel, was erected in 1888. The Observatory was built in 1886 and the transit room added in 1887. The auditorium was erected in 1902. St. John's Hall in 1907. The Medical College began in 1892 in temporary quarters, was moved in 1897 to the present Medical College building. The Medical Laboratory building and School of Pharmacy were subsequently added to the Medical group. The Law School was begun in 1904, and along with the Dental School (1905) occupied the Edward Creighton Institute Building erected in 1905. The Gymnasium was erected in 1916. In 1921 the two new buildings erected for law and dentistry at 26th and California streets, were completed and occupied. The College of Pharmacy was begun in 1905; the Summer School in 1913, and the College of Commerce in 1920.

Mr. John A. Creighton was made a Count of the Papal Court in 1895 and received the Laetare Medal from the University of Notre Dame in 1900.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE CLUBS TO DANCE

Tuesday Febr 16, will be an eventful evening at the Madrid. That is the time arranged for the annual Metropolitan Ball to be given by the foreign language clubs of Creighton University. The German, French, Czech, and Spanish club members have been active in with their support to make this novel dance the most spectacular entertainment of the year.

A good orchestra has been secured for the evening, in fact, nothing has been overlooked that will enhance the evening's frolic. During the intermission a medley of acts will be given by miniature Stechers, Napoleons, Wagners, and valentinos. This it follows that no one will be deprived of a laugh, or at least a broad Spanish smile.

Professor and Mrs. Marrin will be chaperones.

The University of North Dakota is be-moaning the fact that Creighton has not scheduled a game for the next season with them. They state that one big excuse for this on Creighton's part is the fact that North Dakota will have a very husky team next year. But with such a team as Creighton will have next season, teams like North Dakota ought not to be feared.

DELTA KAPPA DELTA
Delta Kappa Delta entertained at a dinner at their house, followed by an Orpheum party, last Monday evening, for the departure of Brother Cliff Nolan, who left Omaha Tuesday. About thirty-five members and pledges were present. Brother Haum acted as toastmaster for the occasion. Short talks were given by Brother Nolan, and Alumnus Brother Dr. Peter P. Bell.

With examinations past, the attention of the fraternity is now turned towards the annual initiation. At the last regular meeting of Tuesday February 2, it was decided to begin the probation week with the regular pledge day on Friday, February 12; initiation to be held on Saturday, February 20.

Delta Kappa Delta regrets to hear that Pledge Carol Jones is leaving school for the coming semester, to join the staff of the advertising department of the Omaha Bee. However, we are pleased to hear that Jones contemplates returning to school next term.

PHI CHI NOTES
Brother Feehan was summoned to Kansas City Saturday following the death of his brother-in-law.

Another of our brethren has chosen wisely and well. Congratulations from the chapter, Dr. Howard.

It is with deep regret that we inform the many friends of Brother Fewer, that he will soon leave us. "Spees", as he is affectionally known by his many acquaintances, will not return to school this semester, due to failing health. He expects to leave within the next two weeks for the recuperate. Brother Fewer is one of the popular members of the junior class, and his going will undoubtedly be keenly felt by all who had the pleasure of knowing him. He expects to return to Creighton, however, to finish his medical course, and we all hope his return to health is rapid, that we may soon have him with us again.

AITCHISON'S BEARD CAUSES SENSATION

When the Creighton basketball team lost to Nebraska, January 9, Lee Aitchison, Creighton Senior, began to grow a beard goatee, as the result of a wager with Frank Keen of Lincoln. It has been agreed that the loser would not be shaved until his team should win from the other.

Perhaps fortunately for Mr. Aitchison, Nebraska and Creighton again meet February 13. Should Creighton lose, he has the option of settling for a cash consideration "which is totally out of the question", or he has to continue letting the beard grow. "Should Creighton lose, I'll let nature take her course," he grimly observed.

The beard is growing rapidly. "It has created a sensation in school" Mr. Aitchison said. "It is measured daily and I have some of the freshmen thinking I am a professor." Black and curly, it gives an appearance of great dignity, but "this tonorial appendage impedes oculatory efficiency" the owner commented.

"It has its advantages, however. So far I have saved $5.50, and if I am forced to wait for revenge until next year, I will have saved $90.25, not counting tips. I am handicapped by not being able to play baseball or a musical instrument, but I applied for a position as a night watchman in the House of David."

meals. His request was emphatically refused, and he was told that unless the cash was laid on the counter strict measures would be taken.

"You'll have to trust me, or try and collect."

"I'll more than try. I'm calling the police immediately."

One of the waiters happened to be a student, but he had been put wise to the hoax. He started to dial the wrong number in pretence of calling the police, but the pledges came back and were watching every move. He didn't wish to spoil the joke, so he called Jackson 2345 and told headquarters to send up the wagon.

The pledges then began to plead with the manager to accept their word, and promised to pay their bill immediately. Just as the wagon drove up, and two big "Dicks" stepped out, the manager of the restaurant told them that he would charge the bill. It didn't take long for them to scatter to the four winds.

EDITORIALWISE AND OTHERWISE

Sir Richard Winnefry who is, when not busy telling Americans how foolish they are, a member of the English Parliament, comes over here and tells us Americans that we are half-civilized, and on an equal with African savages. Did he get away with it? Packed houses, seats commanding fancy prices, and thousands being turned away, is the answer. Yes, Sir Richard, we agree with you when you tell us that we "have lots to learn yet."

Along comes a Doctor Owen to disturb the quiet post-exam lethargy of undergrads the world over with a bitter denunciation of that popular and contagious disease of the pedal extremities, the Charleston. Dr. Owen is, in advocating repression of this popular ballroom step, running true to the form of our "Latter Day Puritans". Like his sainted prototypes, he, too, forgets that prohibitory measures without the support of popular opinion are as ineffectual as the harangues of political malcontents in Hyde Park.

Effie Cherry, she of vodvil fame back in the days when we embryonic Pulitzerizers were still in rompers, and who is now anxious to be the W. J. Bryan of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, politics, is telling the world what is wrong with it. In her campaign for the mayoralty of this otherwise peaceful and phlegmatic community, Effie is on the war-path against high taxes, high skirts, one-piece bathing suits, and white-collared gasoline hounds. Effie has little chance of ever becoming the first lady of Cedar Rapids, but what matters that with a nice vodvil contract as a consolation prize. Every man his own press agent.

Now, turning to the more serious and more beautiful side of life, the Retreat was a splendid success. It was certainly refreshing spiritually and mentally to see so many young men devote three days of prayer and meditation with our Lord. What could be more inspiring and strikingly impressive than the sight witnessed in St. John's church last Sunday morning when eight or nine hundred light young hearts marched to the altar railing and, with souls clean and pure as the snow, partook of the Body and Blood of our Lord, their spiritual life and sustenance. And, by the way, as long as we have young men such as these we will not need Effie Cherry's, Richard Winnefry's, and Doctor Owen's to keep the world in its axis.

STUDENTS' LETTER BOX

This column is in receipt of a lengthy anonymous tirade, attacking the editorial policy of The Creightonian, at the end of which the writer expresses his desire to see his harangue published in this column. However, it has, long been the policy of this paper to refuse publication unless the author is known. The article is set up in type, ready for publication, if the writer will disclose his identity to some member of the staff.

quired to labor, either from the necessity of supporting themselves or other dependent on them.

Labor is a universal law of nature, and none can violate it without suffering the due penalty. It is the giving out of a certain force, a certain energy, and in this world so full of life and activity, everybody must work.

A life of idleness soon palls upon the young man or woman who is a "do-nothing." They kill time by spending it in sleep, by reading trashy novels, or by chatting with people who are as useless as themselves and hunger for something more real; yet they are too indolent to do anything that requires application.

You can find pleasure in work well done, not only from the fruits of your labor, but also from the work itself. Your nature demands something upon which to spend its force and energy and when thus engaged is grows stronger and better. Many are forced to labor for a living, but others engage in some occupation for their own improvement. Do not imagine that a life of ease is a happy life. Far from it. Labor has many rewards; it develops the faculties of the soul and the strength of the body.

Sometimes work becomes a drudgery and is hard to endure. It is work, work all the time for barely enough to keep body and soul together, and if it were not for your faith where could you find comfort? If the joys of this life were to be your only hope of happiness, your lot would be a hard one, but our Saviour says, "Come to me, all you that labor and are burdened, and I will refresh you." You can have patience, purity of heart and strength in mind and body, and spiritual writers tell us that labor is a great safeguard to the soul, just as idleness is its ruin.

If necessity obliges you to work, strive to do your work well. Endeavor to perform your task with care and diligence. One who labors in this way will find that the most disagreeable work will in time become easy, and those for whom you work soon will appreciate you as you deserve.

Be not unhappy, therefore, because you have to work, but rejoice because you are able to work.

FINANCIAL REPORT OF STUDENTS UNION

Board Follows Precedent In Making Annual Report To Students

By Board of Governors to Members of Creighton Students Union.

Following a precedent established by former Boards in regard to the financial condition of the organization, the Board of Governors submits this report of the exact financial status of the Union on the 28th day of December 1923. If any member desires further information, he may request same from any member of the Union Board by personal application or by letter through the Creightonian.

In taking over the affairs of the Union by the present board they found the Union in better financial condition than had been the case in previous years. Under this administration it has been the policy to increase this reserve which has been started so that some time in the future a worth while sinking fund might be established. To this end we have worked and the same is reflected in the balance sheet below. It is our hope that we may add to the fund already established by the old board and leave them in a sounder financial position than any other board has had the opportunity to do.

INDOOR TRACK TEAM GOES TO K. C. MEET

Keane, Schueler, Morrissey and Lilly Comprise Quartet to Represent Blue

Creighton university's indoor track early birds went to the mark this week's fight for positions on the Blue mile relay team which will be sent to Kansas City to compete in the K. C. A. C. meet Saturday. When Coach Wynne had pocketed his time piece and calculated the results of past performances of the fastest quartet, it was announced that Captain Sas Keane, Tony Schueler, Steve Morrissey and Larry Lilly will compose the team.

This outfit will meet at Marquette in a special mile match. In the past Creighton has usually paired off with the Haskell Indians and the new arrangement will bring the Blue into combat with her old Milwaukee rivals.

This will be Captain Keane's first experience with a relay four, his previous competition being confined to the shorter dashes. In tryouts this winter the fleet hilltop pilot has shown promise of materially reducing his records and increasing his versatility which now covers proficiency in the hurdles, high jump, broad jump, pole vault and dashes. Keane will run in the special 50-yard dash at the K. C. meet.

Schueler and Morrissey are relay veterans who have worked industriously this season to better their old form. Coach Wynne has said that his whole squad shows the good effects of last year's hard training. Larry Lilly, the sophomore football half-back, a speedy little parcel of nerve who should make history on the cinders under Wynne's tutelage.

Besides the relay team Wynne has entered Boyer in the open half mile run and Schmidt in the mile run. Both have been clipping off good time of late and should come closer to the ribbons than Creighton has ever before been able to do in these events.

LANG WINS OMAHA SKATING HONORS

Elmer Lang, captain-elect for the Bluejay football team, and All-Conference end for two years, won the Omaha Skating Championship laurels at Fontenell park last week. Lang entered and won first place in the 220 yard, 440 yard, 660 yard dashes, and the half mile, mile and two mile races. He displayed his versatile skating ability by winning both the dashes and the long distance races. In three of the races his only competition for first place was last year's champion. In the 440 yard dash the race was very close, and was contested because Lang fell down at the finish, but the judges decided that he had finished first.

The two mile Blue Streak derby was sponsored by the Spaulding Sporting Goods Company, and gave Lang a pair of skates for winning first place. The meet was sponsored by the Omaha Bee and Spaulding Sporting Goods Company.

Elmer received a gold medal from the Omaha Bee as emblematic of the skating championship of Omaha. Lang had not been skating much before the meet, and was not very optimistic about winning first place.

"I thought it would be exciting, and a quite a bit of fun, but I didn't really expect to enter many races. After I had won the first race I thought it wouldn't hurt to try in the others, so I kept skating in all of them. I knew that I had enough after the two mile race and was ready to quit," states our husky football captain.

Lang lives in Minneapolis, where skating is the favorite winter sport. Elmer skates as well as he plays football, and that is saying quite a bit about his skating ability.

LEROY BUCK ENROLLS AT CREIGHTON UNI

LeRoy Buck, professional musical entertainer, and ex-Orpheum star, has enrolled in the Creighton College of Commerce for the second semester. Buck will play with Meyer's Peony Park Orchestra, as well as with the campus musical organizations, while combating with the intricacies of bookkeeping and accounting.

Buck came to Omaha from Calmar, Iowa, but has been headquartered out of Norfolk, Nebr., the past few months with King's Radio Entertainers.

He appeared in Omaha last winter on the Orpheum stage with his own act, entitled "LeRoy Buck and His Orchestra in 'Jazzmania'", which made a big hit with Omaha theatre-goers.

BLUEJAY EDITORS WANT SNAPSHOTS

Students having snapshots suitable for publication in the "Bluejay" are requested by the editors to turn them in to the annual staff as soon as possible. Pictures of student life and activities are always one of the most interesting features of a university annual and it is hoped that enough snapshots will be turned in to make the collection representative of student life at Creighton. Pictures of R. O. T. C. activities, camp life, rooms, familiar scenes about the university, and undergraduate antics, together with vacation snaps are all welcome. Medical students may turn in their offerings to Tom O'Brien or Harry Dorwat; Pharmacy students to Vic Doyle; Law students to Tom Delaney; and Dental students to "Sas" Keane. The students in the Arts College are requested to bring their snapshots to the Bluejay offices in the Commerce and Finance building.

THAT means "Pipa Amoroso" in the Latin, or "pipe-lover" in plain campus English. P. A. has certainly endeared a pipe to more men than any other letters in the smoke-alphabet. Because Prince Albert lets a fellow smoke all he wants to—and makes him want to!

Cool as the stare of a marble Venus. Sweet as the approach of vacation. Fragrant as spring blossoms. Think up your own similes, Fellows. You will when you pick P. A. and a jimmy-pipe for permanent roommates. Prince Albert is great tobacco, and that's not blah.

Get yourself a tidy red tin of Prince Albert today. Fill the bowl of that old jimmy-pipe to the brim and borrow a match. Then you're set for some great smoke-sessions, as sure as you're a foot high.

CREIGHTON MAY JOIN NEW CONFERENCE

C. U. MAKES MOVE TO GET BIGGER GAMES FOR BLUEJAY TEAMS

Marquette, Loyola, Notre Dame And Others In Contemplated Conference

Heads of eight leading Catholic universities of the central west regard favorably a plan projected by Creighton and Marquette to organize an athletic conference and this association may be brought into being within the next two months.

This information was made public Wednesday by A. A. Schabinger, director of athletics at Creighton, who said that the plans had been under consideration for some time.

The members included in the number are Loyola of Chicago, St. Louis university, John Carroll of Cleveland, St. Xavier of Cincinnati and Detroit university.

"If the conference is formed it will give Omaha football followers the caliber of games they have been demanding but which for various reasons have found difficult to secure," said Schabinger. "Schools in other conferences are unable to play outside teams as strong as Creighton and at the same time meet their fellow members."

"Omaha fans aren't satisfied with North Central contests, even though those among them who know anything of college athletics are aware that North Central teams have been as strong as the teams of almost any other conference."

"The local followers of athletics insist on seeing contests with schools of national reputation. Formation of such a conference as Creighton and Marquette have suggested would bring these teams to Omaha."

Schabinger could not say whether Creighton would continue a member of the North Central if the proposed conference becomes a reality.

With the exception of Notre Dame, the position has been unwise, the other tent-tive members have had as great difficulty as Creighton in obtaining games with members of the major conferences. Formation of the Catholic circuit would mean a third great conference in the middle west, apparently as powerful as the Missouri Valley or Big Ten.

CHANGES LIKELY IN BLUE COURT LINEUP

There was a great beating of tomtoms, figuratively speaking, in Creighton university's basketball camp this week following the disastrous visit of the Des Moines Tigers Tuesday. The Hilltop squad was aroused this week as it has seldom been aroused before and from now on according to all appearances, jungle cats or what have you will be lucky to get away from the Blue warriors with whole skins.

Chief Schabinger applied the war paint to his miniature army yesterday in a long and gruelling drill against the yearlings. There was no mincing of words and no soft-pedaling over what has gone down in the record books during the past week. The Hilltop mentor tramped the side-lines with fire in his eyes, as he worked over his choicest troops, snapping at each mis-play like a hawk and driving, driving relentlessly.

Evidently the Creighton coach has tried everything in the book and is now using the last desperate method of bringing back confidence and pep to his team. He will send his crew against South Dakota university here Friday night and he intends to recreate something in the way of opposition for the Vermillion team that will resemble the fast form which the Blue showed early in the season.

Tuesday night Schabinger used Captain Frank Ryan and Gordon Dising at forward against the frosh, while Pohl at center and Koudele and Haley at guard. The problem is in Pohl's offensive section and it's a tough one to solve. Brown's usual eagle eye was directed against Des Moines and it is possible that Schabinger may try to work Dising at this post this week.

Pohl is a good jumper at center, but, like Dising, he is short on experience. Beha is coming along well at guard but Koudele's good playing in the first half against the Tigers gave the latter a boost that will keep Beha busy to overcome Haley played a good game against Des Moines, although the defense was caught napping enough times to cause them a victory in the close battle.

All of the extras that were employed in the production of "The Freshman" were students of the University of California.

DES MOINES CAGERS DEAL MEAN BLOW

By Gordon Richmond.
The second staggering blow to Creighton's North Central conference championship aspirations descended upon a surprised flock of Bluejays and their followers last Tuesday night at Creighton gym, and a great big Tiger paw, as jungle lingo would have it, accomplished the act. Des Moines university, for the first time in Tiger history, beat Creighton, 35 to 21.

If it were quite the accepted thing for Creighton to take a normal share of trimmings in the conference, last night's spectators would not have gone home with a dark brown taste lingering in their palates. But the Blue plainly disappointed her following, playing a hesitating, uncertain brand of ball that was climaxed by an utter desertion of basket shooting skill.

Led by a steely-jawed little forward, "Bennie" Toay by name, the Tigers sparred with the Omahans during a hotly contested first half and then swept into a pronounced lead as the final period ticked away. Toay was unstoppable at all ranges, and his 10 field goals scored in dazzling succession hung up a record that probably has never before been equalled against a Creighton team.

The Omaha five tried hard to improve their passing attack which was badly deranged a week ago but there were very few bits of flashy team play in spite of the fact that the Tigers were not extraordinarily vigilant on defense. The Creighton attack was strong to the point of delivery and from then on the Tigers would usually retrieve the leather from the board and dash back to home territory.

Coach Schabinger tried everything he had in suit except Hugh Fogarty but no combination showed distinct superiority. The Blue charged and tossed and passed with every change of pace known but the iron hoop refused to receive the leather. Des Moines broke through the Creighton defense to many openings, the local crew showing poorer strength in this department than ever before this season.

Creighton had the privilege of leading but once, at the close of the first half after Des Moines had forged into the lead and overcome four different ties which the Blue managed to make. But Toay broke that Creighton 15-14 advantage before the whistle by caging two snappy goals and putting the Tigers ahead, 13 to 15.

Brown and Ryan connected for a brilliant duet of goals early in the second and Creighton took new courage but Toay soon went wild again and Creighton collapsed as the Tigers ran the count to 35. A long shot by Dising was Creighton's last score.

INTRAMURAL SWIMMING MEET SPONSORED

The success of the Intramural basketball league at Creighton has prompted the Athletic department to sponsor other intramural sports which will give all men a chance to participate in their favorite sport. An intramural swimming meet has been planned for February 12, to be held in the Creighton tank at 7:30 P. M.

Gold medals will be given to the winners of first place in each event. The meet will be run on the point basis, and the first three places will count in determining the college or class winners. The managers appointed should get a list of their candidates and send them to the athletic directors office at one. The following men are managers of their respective college or school teams: Dentistry—Joe Speicher; Arts—L. Powderly; Law—Elmer Lang; Medicine—Arnold McDermott; Commerce—Joe New.

FROSH BASKET BALL TEAM LOOKS GOOD

Coach John Trautman's scrappy freshman basketball team has named itself the Gophers. Nine of the frosh squad come from the Gopher state. These sons of Minnesota give Coach Schabinger's varsity plenty of competition in scrimmage every night. Louis and Harry Trautman, brothers of Captain Johnnie of last year's varsity team, Sammy Kaufman, Fred Kampf, Jack Connolly, Bill Lynch, Mark Devine, Stanley Honsa and Don Somers are the mainstays of the frosh team.

Louis Trautman, captain and forward of the Mechanical Arts High School team of St. Paul, was given honorable mention on the all-American high school team chosen at the Stagg National Basketball tournament last year. He was ace of the Mechanical and chosen for an forward berth on the all-Minnesota team. Harry Trautman was his running mate in high school. Harry and Louis have played together for five years, and gave Mechanical High one of the best scoring combinations it has ever had.

"Sammie" Kaufman, the stocky little guard, played with Jackson high school of St. Paul. Sammy was one of the best guards in the Twin-Cities. He was chosen by the St. Paul papers for the All-City team for four consecutive years. Mark Devine was a team-mate of the Trautman brothers when they played in the semi-final round of the National tournament at Chicago.

Fred Kampf, Bill Lynch and Don Somers came to Creighton from Fairbault, Minnesota. They are consistent players and will furnish plenty of competition for next years varsity squad.

Jack Connolly, of Waseca, Minn., is a clever floor man and a good shot at the hoop. He is used at center and guard against the varsity. Mechanical Arts High is represented by three men, and Jackson High by Sammy Kaufman, giving the Capital city four candidates for the Bluejay team next year. Fairbault has sent Sommers, Lynch and Kampf, and Waseca is represented by Connolly. Stanley Honsa, of Renville Minn., is a tall rangy center, and a likely candidate for Mahoney's old center position.

Kansas University will broadcast the results of all the basketball games that they play at home.
