CHRISTMAS BOOK DRIVE for needy Omaha children: The Creighton University libraries again are sponsoring a children's book drive with a collection period from now until Nov. 21. This year the Book Drive seeks new or used books in good condition for young children from preschool through fourth grade. The University's contribution will be donated to the Salvation Army Children's Bureau which distributes the books to Omaha parents identified as needy and interested in helping their children get a head start on reading in the home. Collection points are the Health Sciences Library Lobby, the Law Library Circulation Area and the Reinert/Alumni Library Circulation Area. A good place to purchase a book is the Child Care Center's Emma Ocanto Memorial Children's Book Fair to be held Thursday, Nov. 9, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. in the St. Joseph Hospital Cafeteria Area, and Friday, Nov. 10, from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m., in the Skutt Student Center Fireplace Lounge. For more information, contact Chris LeBeau, x1757, or Terri Clark, x1802.

THE CREIGHTON SCHOOL of Medicine will present "Common Psychiatric Illnesses in the Elderly" on Tuesday, Dec. 5, beginning at 6 p.m. at the Omaha Marriott Hotel, 10220 Regency Circle. Designed for family physicians and internists, this seminar will feature Dr. Donald P. Hay, associate professor of psychiatry at the St. Louis University School of Medicine and director of the Geriatric Psychiatry Inpatient Program and Late Life Mood Disorders Program. For more information or to register, call Continuing Medical Education, x1830.

REMINDER: LEARN about current funding opportunities of the American Heart Association when David Smith, associate professor of biomedical sciences and this year's chair of the Research Committee for the American Heart Association's Nebraska Affiliate, leads a brown bag lunch discussion on Thursday, Nov. 9, from 11:45 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. The workshop will be held in the Medical Dean's Conference Room (room 128), Criss II. Sponsored by Grants Administration.

PROCEDURE UPDATE: Procedure GNPR01 in the Controller's Office Policies and Procedures Manual has been updated on the University Gopher. The revision has added the first paragraph under "Processing Steps" in the procedure, which discusses netting petty cash and deposit transactions. If you have any questions, please contact Dave Madsen, x5750.

STARTING AN EXERCISE program? Let the Creighton Human Performance Laboratory help you do it right. The center offers various fitness tests to determine aerobic fitness, body composition, muscular strength, endurance and flexibility. Let the center design a program that will lead you to success! Personal training also is available. For more information, please call the Human Performance Lab at x2493 or x2494.

HOLIDAY WEIGHT MANAGEMENT Series: It is possible to lose and maintain weight over the holidays! Join the Cardiac Center's seven-week Holiday Weight Management Series. Group classes will be offered at two times — Tuesdays over the noon hour from 11:45 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. and Tuesday evenings from 5:15 to 6 p.m. The series will start on Tuesday, Nov. 14. Topics covered will include exercise, recipe modification, managing parties and buffets, and more. Call x4929 for more details or to preregister. Cost for the seven weeks is $35. Each participant will receive a workbook and class materials.

BMC SERVING YOU: Biomedical Communications' professional photographers provide a full range of photographic services including film processing, black and white and color printing, slide duplication, location photography, and application/passport/portrait photography. Call x5110 for more information and ask for Tom Herbert.

THE SIGMA PHI EPSILON fraternity at Creighton is hosting a "Hoops for Hope" charity basketball tournament on Nov. 18-19 in the Kiewit Fitness Center. Tournament play includes four people per team with three-on-three play. Divisions for men's, women's and coed teams are available. The price is $10 per person which includes a tournament T-shirt for all participants. If you do not want to play in the tournament, you can still purchase a T-shirt for $10. Proceeds from the tournament benefit the North Omaha Boys' Club, helping the Club to purchase equipment and renovate facilities. Registration forms are available at residence hall desks and the Kiewit Fitness Center. Registration also will be available in the Swanson Hall Television Lounge on Friday, Nov. 17. If you have questions or would like a registration form, call Phil Zack at x3592.
