HAVE YOU EVER WONDERED what the Creighton Retreat Center is like? Now's your chance to "come and see." Collaborative Ministry is hosting a faculty/staff getaway beginning the evening of Friday, Oct. 18, and continuing to the afternoon of Saturday, Oct. 19. Bring your spouse and family for rest and relaxation in the woods. Mark your calendars and watch your mail for more information. Questions? Call Joan Lanahan or Fr. Jack Zuercher, S.J., at x3056.

THE CREIGHTON PRE-HOSPITAL Education office is looking for programs or upcoming events that require volunteers to fulfill "community service" requirements. The students are all EMT's and are continuing their education in the Intermediate/Paramedic fields. Part of their training requires 10-20 hours of community service time. If you have any programs or scheduled events where volunteer help is needed or would like to know more about the PreHospital Education program, please contact Laurie Bier at x1282.

THE 1996 UNITED WAY/CHAD Campaign begins today. Please show your concern for others by making a donation. Creighton's goal is 100 percent employee participation. All donors are eligible to win one of the raffle prizes.

THE FIRST EMPLOYEE Development program, "Listening and Expressing Yourself: The Art of Understanding Others and Being Understood," will be held Monday, Sept. 23, from 8:30 to 11:30 a.m. in the Skutt Student Center Ballroom. Please return your reservation card by tomorrow or call University College at x2424.

CROCKPOT BASICS Cooking School: Come learn easy and healthful tips for Crockpot cooking. Recipes demonstrated and served include autumn pork tenderloin, Crockpot grains, salmon loaf, lemon chicken, vegetarian chili, chicken tetrazzini and more. This class will be held Thursday, Sept. 26, from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. The class fee is $15 per person or two for $25. Call x4929 to preregister.

TED SORENSEN, known as John F. Kennedy's "alter ego," advisor and "intellectual blood bank," will be on campus tomorrow at 3 p.m. in the Skutt Student Center, Room 105, to speak on the modern presidency. Sorensen is the author of several books on his experiences with the Kennedys. Anyone interested in purchasing an autographed copy of his latest book, "Why I am a Democrat," should contact Dr. Bryan Le Beau, x2652, by today. For more information on the talk, call Dr. Le Beau.

ATTENTION FACULTY: Please remind your students that a timed practice general GRE test will be administered and study tips for preparing for the GRE will be discussed on Monday, Sept. 23, from 5:30 to 9:30 p.m. in Rigge Science, Room 110. Cost is $5. Students should register with Dr. Laura Finken in Rigge Science, Room 118B, by tomorrow.

CENTERNET: All faculty, staff and students are invited to attend "State Health Workforce Policy Making: A Case Study of North Carolina" on Wednesday, Sept. 25, from 11 a.m. to noon in the Criss Health Sciences Building, Room 248/249. The panel features Dr. H. Garland Hershey, vice provost for health affairs, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill; Dr. Thomas R. Konrad, director of the Program on Health Professions and Primary Care, the Cecil G. Sheps Center for Health Services Research, University of North Carolina; and James D. Bernstein, director of the North Carolina Office of Rural Health and Resource Development. As with all CenterNet programs, the broadcast will be live with audience interaction.

THE OFFICE SUPPLY PRODUCT Show will be held Wednesday, Sept. 25, in the Skutt Student Center Ballroom from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. (Please note time change.) Plan to attend! Manufacturer samples will be available as well door prizes.

LABORATORY SAFETY REMINDER: Chemicals stored in refrigerators should be sealed and double packaged if possible. They should also be labeled with the name of the material, the date placed in the refrigerator, and the name of the person who stored the material. A current inventory of the refrigerator's contents must be posted on the outside of its door. For more information, contact Environmental Health and Safety at 449-6404.
