

THE BLUE NEWS

CREIGHTON
UNIVERSITY

CAMPUS EVENTS

TODAY

PHONE—2069

FAX—2549

E-MAIL—GERDES@CU

WEDNESDAY, MAY 25, 1994

EVENTS TODAY:

Ob/Gyn grand rounds, "Anesthesia Management of the Patient for a C-section," Dr. Robert McQuillan, assistant professor of Anesthesiology, 8 a.m., Saint Joseph Hospital, seminar room.

Pharmacy and Allied Health seminar, "Modulation of Ricin-induced Oxidative Stress by Tumor Necrosis Factor Alpha Antibody," Daniel Muldoon, graduate student, 12:30 p.m., Criss II, room 406b.

Support Group meeting, Adult Children of Alcoholic/Dysfunctional Families, noon-1 p.m., St. John's Church basement, Celebration Room.

EVENTS THURSDAY:

Women's Network brown bag lunch, featuring artist Sue Olson-Mander, speaking on postcards featuring historical sites in Nebraska and silhouette shadow cutting, noon-1 p.m., Student Center Ballroom.

EVENTS FRIDAY:

Special Preview of the Lied Education Center for the Arts, 11 a.m., near construction site.

Retirement reception for Jim Crossley, 2-4 p.m., Bookstore.

YOU'RE invited to a special Preview of the Lied Education Center for the Arts on Friday, May 27 at 11 a.m. A brief ceremony near the construction site on the mall adjacent to the Law School will be followed by a tent reception with refreshments between the Wareham Building and the Child Care Center. The event will feature live music and a display of artwork. This is an important opportunity for all of us at Creighton to express our thanks to the Lied Foundation as well as to the architects and those involved in the construction of this long-held dream for the Creighton campus. Please join Fr. Morrison, the vice presidents and special guest Christina Hixon of the Lied Foundation for this special event.

THE CAMPUS MINISTRY Faculty Group spring camp out will be this Friday-Sunday at Prairie Rose State Park near Harlan, Iowa. Campers or picnic visitors are invited to join the group. For information call Bill or Kathy Brannen, x2129; x2441 or 393-8697.

THE CREIGHTON POMPON Squad and Food Committee are still accepting donations for their annual garage sale. Pickup is available; call Judy Streitz, 455-9161. The sale will be June 2, 3 and 4, from 9 a.m.-8 p.m., at 5409 N. 50th Street. Attend the largest garage sale in town. Proceeds benefit area shelters and food pantries.

GENERAL ADMISSION COLLEGE World Series ticket books are on sale in the Athletic Department. A book of 10 tickets may be purchased for $25 (a $40 value). Tickets may be upgraded to reserved seats by paying the price difference at Rosenblatt Stadium on game day only. (Championship game tickets can be upgraded beginning the first day of the series.) The series runs June 3-11.

CANOEING ENTHUSIASTS: The 5th Annual Niobrara Canoe Trip is scheduled for June 17-19. If you are interested, contact George McNary, x2623, or Kathy Brannen, x2129.

CHEMICAL WASTE: The next pick up of chemical waste is tentatively scheduled for July. To obtain cost estimates for generating departments, inventories must be submitted to Environmental Health and Safety no later than June 1. Call 449-6400 for appropriate inventory forms. Note: All chemicals requiring disposal must be labeled. Waste containing multiple chemicals must be labeled and identified with chemical breakdown.

NATIVE AMERICAN STUDENTS will be on campus June 1 and 2 for a visit hosted by the School of Pharmacy and Allied Health Professions. Approximately 25 students from the Winnebago and Omaha Indian communities will tour campus, explore health science programs and give a presentation.

VOLUNTEERS ARE NEEDED Saturday, June 11 for the President's Alumni Picnic. Please donate an hour of your time from 4-8:30 p.m., selling tickets or working a game booth. Call the Alumni Relations Office today, x2222.

HIGH SCHOOL RECIPROCAL Tuition Program: Dependent children of full-time faculty, staff and administrators with three years of service with the University may apply for up to 25 percent remission of tuition at the following high schools during the 1994-95 academic year: the Boys Home, Brownell-Talbot, Creighton Prep, Daniel J. Gross, Duchesne Academy, Fr. Flanagan, Mercy and Roncalli. The participating high schools must have the names of the eligible students as soon as possible. Application forms are invalid if not completed and returned to the Business Office prior to June 24. Applications will not be accepted after June 24. The remission percentage may vary considerably for each school depending upon the number of participants at each school. Please contact the Business Office for the exact percentage. Forms may be obtained by calling Mark Kantor, x2292.

YOU'RE INVITED to the third annual Creighton Alumni Club of Omaha Golf Outing which will be held at the Knolls Golf Course (near 120th and Maple), Monday, June 27, 1 p.m. Cost is $45 per person and includes 18 holes of golf (Texas scramble), golf cart, prizes, dinner and complimentary drinks. Cost of golf only is $37, dinner only is $8. Contact Alumni Relations, x2222.

CREIGHTON FEDERAL CREDIT Union has announced new 9-, 19- and 38-month CDs with yields of 4.85, 5.5 and 5.8 percent respectively. The offer is good through June 30. Rates are posted regularly on JAYNet.

IN RESPONSE TO POSITIVE feedback from the Supervisor's Coffee meetings, the film clip "The Human Touch II — Performance Evaluations," will be shown at 7:30 a.m. Wednesday, June 1 in the Student Center, room 105 and again on Thursday, June 2 at 7:30 a.m., in the St. Joseph Hospital seminar room. Coffee will be served. A short discussion will follow. All supervisors who conduct performance evaluations are encouraged to attend.

JOB POSTINGS, as provided by Human Resources: 1st day — Assistant Director of Development Services, Development, A-01; Receptionist, Medical Dean's Office, C-05. 3rd day — Assistant Manager of Media Relations, Public Relations, P-03.