

THE BLUE NEWS

CREIGHTON
UNIVERSITY

CAMPUS EVENTS
T O D A Y

PHONE — 2069

FAX — 2549

MONDAY, MARCH 1, 1993

President

6

EVENTS TODAY:

On-campus interviews: Department of Social Services, Enterprise Financial. School of Medicine special seminar "Novel Inhibitors of Cystine and Serine Proteinases: Applications in Tumors and Parasites," by Dr. Brian Walker, anceled.

Basketball, Lady Jays vs. Bradley, 5 p.m., Civic Auditorium.

Basketball, Bluejays vs. Wichita State, 7:35 p.m., Civic Auditorium.

EVENTS TUESDAY:

Nebraska Supreme Court hearings, 9 a.m.-noon, Law School, Gross Appellate Courtroom.

Co-dependency Group meeting, noon-1 p.m., Lower St. John's Celebration Room.

PROFESSIONAL NOTES: ■ Eileen Wirth, assistant professor of Journalism, has published an article "The 20th Anniversary of the Nebraska Shield Law," in the Feb./March issue of Nebraska Newspaper magazine. ■ Kathy Taggart, director of Grants Administration, has received certification as a Certified Research Administrator (CRA) by the Research Administrators Certification Council. ■ Dr. Marty Hulce, associate professor of Chemistry, presented "Extended Conjugate Addition in Chemistry," to the Organic Chemistry Colloquium at the University of Nebraska, Lincoln. ■ Professor David Larson, Law, spoke to the Omaha Bar Association regarding recent developments under the Americans With Disabilities Act at a Feb. 18 meeting.

only. Created by ACT, the program offers career exploration, self discovery and graduate school information. The program also includes extensive information on 458 occupations, identifies majors in relation to occupations, and offers current information on more than 5,000 undergraduate and graduate schools. Please inform your students of this opportunity. For information, call Mike Poma, 2298.

THE HISTORY of Medicine Club will present "Traditional Remedies in the Scilian Community of Omaha," by Patrice Northam, on Thursday, March 4 at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Dr. Plinio Pioreschi, 1315 S. 79th St.

NOMINATION FORMS are available now for the 1993 Alumni Merit Awards for graduates from Arts and Sciences, Business Administration, Law, Pharmacy and Allied Health Professions, Nursing, Medicine and the Graduate

DISCOVER, a computer-based career planning program, is available in the Reinert Alumni Library during March

School. Nominations must be returned today. Call Joleen Richwine or Marlene Lenhardt, 2222, Alumni Relations, for nomination forms or for more information.

MEMBERS and prospective members are invited to the Creighton Federal Credit Union's 41st Annual Meeting, Thursday, March 4 at 5 p.m. in the Student Center Ballroom. Door prizes and refreshments will be provided.

NOW IS THE TIME to make reservations for the Faculty-Staff Retreat at the O'Donnell Center, Thursday evening, March 11 through Saturday afternoon, March 13. If your supervisor agrees, you have released time for this retreat. The theme is "The Lord is My Shepherd." Omaha spiritual directors Gigi Cannon and Maryanne Rouse will lead the retreat. Call 3056 for a reservation by March 2.

A PULITZER PRIZE-winning journalist and a nationally renowned expert in constitutional law will discuss last year's Los Angeles riots in the School of Law's annual Lane Foundation Lecture March 4. Terry Schwadron, assistant managing editor of the Los Angeles Times, will present "The Los Angeles Riots One Year Later: What Happened, What is Happening Now and What Does it Mean?" Erwin Chemerinsky, Legion Lex Professor of Law at the University of Southern California, will follow Schwadron's presentation with a discussion of the role lawyers and the justice system played in the civil unrest. The 4 p.m. lecture in the School of Law's Gross Appellate Courtroom is free and open to the public. A reception will follow.

FACULTY COLLEGE is coming again May 17-19. Make plans now to attend this event which features a chance to meet college and university teachers from across Nebraska, gain new ideas and to revitalize your teaching energies. Call Stephanie Newport, College of Business, 2395.

WEIGHT WATCHERS started a new eight-week session on Tuesday, Feb. 23. The enrollment period has been extended so you can still join Tuesday, March 2. Call Diane Kirkle, 4591. The group meets on Tuesdays at noon, in room 131, Dental School.

"PROTECT YOURSELF From Violence," will be presented by Jeff Ottems of Public Safety and Mary Larson of the YWCA on Wednesday, March 3, noon-1 p.m. in the Student Center, room 104. The Wellness Council invites you to a soup lunch and lessons on how to protect yourself. For information, call Suzanne Slepitzka, 2848, or Joan Lanahan, 3056.

THE STAFF ADVISORY Council is accepting nominations from non-exempt staff members in the Vice President for Health Sciences area. One representative from Bio-Med/Dental School areas and one from HS/CUMC areas will be elected to three-year terms on the council. Nomination forms have been mailed to employees in those areas. Return them to Brian Kokensparger by 4 p.m., Friday, March 5. If you have questions, call Kokensparger at 2509.

JOB POSTINGS, as provided by Human Resources: 2nd day — Legal Clinic Secretary, Law, C-09; Medical Coding Clerk, Pathology Reference Lab, C-06; Nutritionist, Pediatrics/WIC, P-01. 3rd day — Custodial Leadperson, Student Center, M-03. 5th day — Lab Tech, Microbiology, T-04.