

THE BLUE NEWS

CREIGHTON
UNIVERSITY

CAMPUS EVENTS T O D A Y

FRIDAY, SEPT. 4, 1992

EVENTS TODAY:

No major events on campus calendars.

EVENTS SATURDAY:

Comedy Club, Don Reese, 7-8 p.m., Jebbies.

Kickoff Classic soccer tournament, Lady Jays vs. SMU, 3 p.m., Tranquility Park.

Ameritas Classic soccer tournament, first round, Bluejays vs. U.M.K.C., 7 p.m., Tranquility Park.

EVENTS SUNDAY:

Ameritas Classic soccer tournament continues, consolation match at 1:45 p.m., championship at 2 p.m., Tranquility Park.

EVENTS MONDAY:

Labor Day, University holiday.

Kickoff Classic soccer tournament, Lady Jays vs. Wisconsin, 1 p.m., Tranquility Park.

EVENTS TUESDAY:

Co-dependency Group meeting, noon-1 p.m., Lower St. John's Celebration Room.

Biomedical Sciences and Pharmacology Seminar, "Research From A Graduate Student Perspective," Margery Herrington, 3:30 p.m., Criss III, room 459.

*****

VARSAITY PRESS has a two-week backlog of orders in conjunction with the beginning of the fall semester and cannot reasonably meet short-term deadlines. Your patience is appreciated.

THERE ARE 52 AGENCIES served by the United Way of the Midlands and CHAD. If you have been affected by any one of these agencies, either as a volunteer for the agency or as someone who has been assisted by an agency, Joyce Bunger, co-chair of the University United Way campaign would like to hear from you. Please contact her at E-5521. We would like to publish your story in the Blue News during the campaign.

THE FACULTY NETWORK, sponsored by the Center for the Study of Religion and Society, will have several meetings this fall to discuss research with a small group of interested people. Projects range from rough drafts or initial data to articles. This has proven to be an excellent source of feedback for participants as well as an opportunity to stay in touch with others working in the broadly defined area of "religion and society." If you are interested in the network, contact Bryan LeBeau in History, E-2652 or Jeanne Schuler in Philosophy E-2834.

CREIGHTON RECENTLY has been listed in two publications as an outstanding educational value. For the second straight year, the University has been included in the college guidebook entitled 101 Best Values in America's Colleges and Universities published by the Center for Studies in College Enrollment and Tuition Issues. Another listing in Money magazine lists Creighton in 91st among the top 100 educational values in the nation.

THE C.U. CYCLING CLUB meets every Sunday at 11 a.m. at Deglman Circle. For more information, contact Lawrence Jackowski, 553-8417.

FACULTY MEMBERS who directed readings during summer sessions to should submit reading forms to the Summer Sessions Office no later than Friday, Sept. 18. Payment will be made on Oct. 1. Reading forms can be obtained from Kathy Adams, E-2843.

HELP THE DEPARTMENT of Pediatrics give children a happy ending to their visit to the doctor. The department wants to recycle children's books by conducting a waiting room reading and storytelling program for children. Donate your books to: Suzanne Slepitzka, Kiewit Center, Main Office or Diane Kirkle, Saint Joseph Hospital, Pediatrics Suite 6820. If you are interested in reading or storytelling, please contact Kirkle at W-4591.

THE BLUEJAY BASKETBALL schedule has been announced. The regular season will begin on Thursday, Dec. 3 with a home game against Iowa State. Exhibitions have been scheduled for Nov. 16 and 23. Conference play begins on Monday, Dec. 21.

THROUGHOUT THE YEAR, there are several occasions when we, as a Creighton family, celebrate around the eucharistic table. In planning these liturgies, every attempt is made to involve students, staff and faculty from a wide range of schools and departments. If you are interested in serving as a liturgical minister, lector, eucharistic minister, greeter, etc., please contact Mary Fisher at E-2206 or Erna LaSala, E-2779. Please give your name, department and the ministry for which you are volunteering. Members of the University Liturgy Committee will contact you. Plans are now in progress for the Mass of the Holy Spirit, so please volunteer today.

*****

JOB POSTINGS, as provided by Human Resources: 2nd day — Secretary to Division Director, Law Library, C-08; Senior Patient Representative, CUMC Billing, C-07.