Fifty plus Five

Books, Manuscripts and Original Drawings

Offered for sale by

Justin G Schiller Ltd

Established in 1959 as a proprietorship, our first catalogue issued in 1960 and incorporated ten years later, Justin G Schiller Ltd is the oldest antiquarian book firm in the United States continuously specializing in rare and collectible children's books in all languages and covering all time periods.

Our prime criteria focus on the development of juvenile literature worldwide and related educational movements, but we also extend into older subjects of overlapping interest – often the unusual rather than what might be expected. We issue catalogues on an infrequent basis, selectively exhibit at both national and international book fairs, and work regularly to assist clients in many countries with collection development, agent representation at auctions, and appraisal services within our fields of expertise.

All material offered for sale is warranted authentic as described by us, under the guidelines of the International League of Antiquarian Booksellers. Books have been carefully collated as to completeness and bibliographical accuracy, and original drawings and manuscripts are guaranteed to be genuine as detailed.

Prices quoted are in U.S. Dollars and title of ownership transfers only upon the receipt and clearance of full payment. Libraries and institutions can be invoiced with deferred billing upon request. Residents of New York State, New Jersey and Connecticut are required to add applicable Sales or Use Tax unless otherwise exempt (new regulations require that appropriate exemption forms be on file no later than 90 days from the date of ordering or the purchaser will be liable for this additional payment prior to the transfer of ownership).

The items listed here may be inspected at our shop Monday thru Friday, 9:00 AM to 4:00 PM, although prior appointment is required for security clearance.

We are always interested in considering the purchase of significant children's book materials, and lists of similar desiderata will be reviewed if we can assist in locating such items for your collection. Thank you for your interest.
