Professional Notes:

Assistant Professor Susan Aizenberg's (English/creative writing) poem "Art" has been selected for inclusion in The Kali Guide, a directory of resources, art, articles and poetry by and for women, to be published this month by Zen Press. The Extraordinary Tide: New Poetry by American Women (Columbia UP, 2001), co-edited by Aizenberg, was reviewed favorably in the Spring 2002 issue of The Virginia Quarterly Review and the March/April 2002 issue of American Book Review.

Richard Bessen and Jason Bartz from the Department of Medical Microbiology and Immunology and Anthony Kincaid from the Department of Physical Therapy published an article titled "Retrograde Transport of Transmissible Mink Encephalopathy within Descending Motor Tracts" in the Journal of Virology, Vol. 76, No. 11, pp. 5759-5768.

Dr. Ngwarsungu Chiwengo, associate professor of English, presented a paper entitled "To Whom do Congolese Writers and Critics Speak?" at the International Congress of Francophone Studies held May 26 to June 2 in Abidjan, Ivory Coast.

Sierra Goetz, Undergraduate Admissions, presented a session, "Improve Prospect, Admit and Deposit Yield Results with Online Chat Events," at the Great Plains Association of College Admission Counselors conference held in Kansas City, Mo., on May 6.

Dr. Kevin Graham, associate professor of philosophy, recently published a review essay entitled "Race and the Limits of Liberalism" in the June 2002 issue of Philosophy of the Social Sciences.

Drs. Phil Lister and Ken Thomson of the Department of Medical Microbiology and Immunology have been appointed to the editorial board of the journal Clinical Microbiology Reviews.

Dr. Wendy M. Wright, Department of Theology, received recognition at the Catholic Press Association of the United States and Canada Annual Awards Program in Minneapolis in May. Her recent "Sacred Heart: Gateway to God" (Orbis Press) received Honorable Mention in the Book Award (Spirituality) category.

Anyone wishing to dispose of chemical waste in the July shipment must have their completed inventory of waste to Lenore Koliha, EH&S, by July 1. Please indicate all components of the waste, if it is a mixture, by volume or percent. All waste containers must be labeled properly. If you have any questions, please call 546-6404.

Diversity Capstone Lecture Series 2002: Educational Opportunity Programs presents a University-wide series of lectures. The focus of each lecture will look at diversity and how it is revealed, lived, practiced and encouraged. Each lecture will take place in the Criss Lecture Hall, Room 459, from 11 a.m.-noon. The topics, presenters and lecture dates are: "Gender," Dr. Donna Pawlowski, Thursday, June 20; "Ability," Dr. Sharon Ishii-Jordan, Thursday, June 27; and "Religion and Diversity," Dr. Wendy Wright, Thursday, July 11. For more information, contact the series coordinators: Annette Crowder (x2958), Dr. Ngwarsungu Chiwengo (x2517) or Wallace Southerland (x2749).

Creighton's Department of Psychiatry is conducting two new studies and needs volunteers. The studies are: 1) for the treatment of anxiety disorders in adults; and 2) for the treatment of panic disorder in adolescents (ages 12-18).
