THE SKUTT STUDENT CENTER Survey winners were second year law student Christopher Simal who won a $75 Bookstore gift certificate, and Grounds and Walks employee Paul Prendergast who won a $75 gift certificate to Austin's Steaks & Saloon restaurant. The Student Center congratulates the winners and thanks everyone who participated in the survey.

ANNUAL QUILT RAFFLE: Habitat for Humanity's annual raffle quilt is on display this week in the Bio-Information Center, 2nd level, outside of Bio-medical Communications (BMC). Raffle tickets are $1 each or six for $5 and may be purchased at the BMC front desk or from Micki Dukat in the vice president for finance and administration office in the Administration Building. Call Dukat at x2131 or Debby Halstrom at x5104 if you have questions.

FAT BUDGETING SALAD BAR Workshop: Come have lunch or dinner at the Cardiac Center and practice your salad bar fat budgeting skills. During this workshop, you will determine your fat gram budget, discuss the fat gram content of typical salad bar items and discuss how to build a heart-healthy salad. Then you will have the opportunity to build and enjoy your own salad according to your fat gram goals. The class will be offered Friday, May 5 from 11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. (for lunch!) and Monday, May 8 from 5:30 to 6:30 p.m. Call x4929 to preregister. Class fee is $5.

COME CHEER ON the Creighton Bluejays baseball team against Southwest Missouri State on Saturday, May 6 at noon at the CU Sports Complex for a double header. Staff, faculty and families will be admitted FREE with the showing of a CU I.D. A contest and give-aways will be held between games. Call Patti Jacoba, Business Office, x2768, if you have questions. Co-sponsored by the Staff Advisory Council and Creighton Athletics.

CENTERNET: ALL faculty, staff and students are invited to attend the CenterNet program, "The Brain at Risk: Preventing, Diagnosing and Managing Stroke—ACE/CME videoconference," on Tuesday, May 2 from noon to 1:30 p.m. at either the Criss Health Sciences Building, Rooms 248-249, or St. Joseph Hospital, Room 2832. As with all CenterNet programs, the broadcast will be live with audience interaction. Beverages will be provided at the Criss location.

CAMPUS MINISTRY WANTS to remind Creighton faculty, staff and students of Omaha's Day of Prayer celebration on Tuesday, May 4 at 12:15 p.m. in the City Hall Plaza. All are invited to attend.

FITNESS CHECK-ups: The Human Performance Laboratory will close for the summer tomorrow. If you are interested in any final fitness check-ups or exercise programs before the school year ends, call Joanne Finley at x2492 for appointments/information. It's never too late to get in shape.

HOLOCAUST REMEMBRANCE: "Inscription of Hope: A Holocaust Remembrance" will be performed by the Nebraska Choral Arts Society and guest artists on Sunday, April 30 at 3 p.m., Beth El Synagogue, 145th and Dodge. Leonard Bernstein's "Chichester Psalms" will be featured. Tickets are available at the Student Center Information Desk.
