THE AMERICAN COUNCIL on Education has announced its 1993-94 ACE Fellows Program. The program offers faculty members and administrators with at least five years of college-level experience the opportunity to develop their knowledge and skills in academic administration. Candidates are nominated by their institution's chief executive or chief academic officer. During the year-long fellowship, the fellows serve as interns either at host campuses or at their home institutions under the mentoring of the president or other senior administrative officers. The deadline for nominations and applications is Nov. 2. Please contact Kathy Taggart, E-2064, for more information.

THE THIRD PART OF "WAKE UP: Spirituality for Today," a three-part video by Tony de Mello, S.J., will be shown this Friday at noon in St. John's Church, lower level seminar room. You need not have been present for the earlier sessions to attend with your sack lunch. Beginning on the first Friday in November interested individuals will meet at noon to share their reactions to de Mello's book Awareness. To sign up, or for more information, call the Collaborative Ministry Office, E-3056.

SOFTWARE PRICE INCREASE: Academic Computing announces a price increase on the software that provides JAYNet access to the Unisys 2200 and the financial system machine. ICC software, previously $395, is now priced at $540. FTP software, used to access the Banner system, was raised from $95 to $150. These changes are effective immediately. The Computer Center provides this software at cost and the new prices reflect increases imposed on the University.

Johnson will be the moderator. The forum is open to questions from the audience regarding both the presidential and congressional races.

ALPHA PHI OMEGA is sponsoring a blanket drive in conjunction with the Great Plains Winter Sleepout. All donations of blankets, gloves and scarves are appreciated. Drop off your donations all this week at boxes in the lobbies of the Kiewit and Swanson Residence Halls.
