Leadership Recognition Awards Nominations: The Omicron Delta Kappa Society of Creighton University would like to remind you of a wonderful opportunity to recognize outstanding students, faculty and staff. ODK and the National Society of Collegiate Scholars are hosting the annual Founders Week Leadership Recognition Awards Ceremony that will honor members of the Creighton community for their extraordinary abilities behind the scenes. Nominations are now being accepted for: the Outstanding Student Leader Award, given to a student who has displayed exceptional leadership abilities, integrity, initiative and service; the Teaching for Tomorrow Award, given to a faculty member who has displayed exceptional dedication to his or her field and students, both in and out of the classroom; and the Rev. Thomas J. Lukaszewicz, S.J. Award, given to a staff member or administrator who goes above and beyond the call of duty to serve the Creighton community. Nomination forms are available in the Student Activities Office and at <http://www.creighton.edu/ODK>. Please include your name and contact information with your nomination. Past award recipients and current ODK members are ineligible for nomination. Nominations are due on Friday, Jan. 16, by 4:30 p.m. They can be submitted online, returned to the Student Activities Office, or e-mailed as an attachment to Evan Green (verde@creighton.edu). Creighton Campus Quilters Celebrate University's 125th Year With Exhibit: The Lied Art Gallery in the Lied Education Center for the Arts presents an exhibit of historical and new quilts from Creighton University's Campus Quilters organization. Titled "Peace from Pieces," the exhibit opens Saturday, Jan. 17, with a reception and quilting demonstration from 6-9 p.m. in the Lied Art Gallery and Main Lobby of the Lied Center. Featured in this exhibit is a quilt created by the Campus Quilters to honor Creighton University's 125 years of Jesuit education. The exhibit continues through Sunday, Feb. 15. The Campus Quilters dedicate this exhibit to the memory of their dear fellow quilter Linda Tranisi. There will be two other events celebrated during this exhibit: a panel discussion in the Main Lobby of the Lied Center on Thursday, Feb. 5, at noon, and a lecture by nationally known Omaha-based quilter Nancy Kirk on Thursday, Feb. 12, at 4 p.m. in the Main Lobby and Lied Art Gallery. Admission is free to all events. back to headlines

Are you preparing to file your taxes and looking over your investments? Is your 403(b) retirement account money diversified in different asset classes (bonds, stocks, balance funds, international)? If not, talk it over with a TIAA/CREF retirement counselor. A counselor will be available to discuss retirement strategies and options under Creighton's 403(b) retirement program. Consultations will be conducted by appointment only on a first come, first served basis. The scheduled dates and locations are: Tuesday, Jan. 27 (corrected date), Skutt Student Center, Room 209; and Tuesday, Feb. 17, Skutt Student Center, Room 209. Schedule an appointment via the web at <http://www.tiaa-cref.org/moc> or call Jessie Lentfer at 1-800-842-2009, ext. 2641. back to headlines

The Kiewit Fitness Center welcomes you back to the new semester with the following specials: 1) Free access to the KFC from Jan. 12-24. Just show a CU I.D. and sign in at the KFC security desk. You may bring other family members or a guest. 2) Free aerobics classes from Jan. 14-24. Try out a group exercise class from more than 18 class offerings per week. 3) Two for one specials for new annual memberships and aerobics class passes for purchases through Jan. 26. 4) Intramural sports basketball registration is Jan. 14 from 8 a.m.-10 p.m. in the KFC office (Room 211)/lobby. In addition, the CU 125 event, the "Biggest Bluejay Bash Ever," will be held on Jan. 24 in the KFC and Skutt Student Center. This free event for all CU staff and families will be held from 3-6 p.m. and will include games, entertainment and dinner prior to the basketball game at 7 p.m. This would be a great time to use the KFC and get to know other Creighton employees. More information will be coming soon. Call x2848 with any questions. back to headlines

Creighton Faculty: The deadline for applying for an Academic Development and Technology Center (ADATC) 2004-05 fellowship is only a few weeks away. Isn't it time to join a small learning community that is focused on improving your computing technology skills? Do you want to learn about producing digital audio, digital video, course CDs, course DVDs, personal websites, digital photography, and many other exciting and useful instructional technologies? Do you want to integrate computing technology into your teaching practices and into your students learning activities? The ADATC is now accepting applications from full-time Creighton University faculty for fellowship appointments in the summer of 2004 and the 2004-05 academic year. A detailed application is available at <http://mentor.creighton.edu/htm/applform.htm>. The deadline for submitting your application is Jan. 31. You are invited to view a video invitation and message from the center's director at http://winstream.creighton.edu/wwwy41785/adatc/Apply\_Now.asf. If you have any questions concerning the fellowships or the application process, please contact Wayne Young at x5814 or wyoung@creighton.edu. back to headlines

Martin Luther King Jr. Celebration: You are invited to attend the Martin Luther King Jr. celebration in the Kiewit Fitness Center on Monday, Jan. 19, at 3:30 p.m. If you are unable to attend in person, no problem! Join the Creighton event and celebration online and see the event as it is happening via streaming video at <http://www.creighton.edu/MLK>. The Creighton University Martin Luther King Jr. Day committee has planned a day of reflection and celebration like no other! "We Shall Overcome -- Together" is the theme this year and together -- whether you are at the event or logged on to see the event -- everyone will be able to celebrate the life and ideals of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. -- together! Walk 100 Begins in 2004: All Creighton employees have received the registration form for Walk 100 2004. Walk 100 is a wonderful opportunity to join with colleagues in establishing a healthy beginning to the new year. Besides aerobic and weight control benefits, participants receive a T-shirt (new design), luncheon celebration on May 18, and are eligible for prize drawings when 25, 50, 75 and 100 mile intervals are completed. Send your registration form and $10 to Maureen Smithberg at University College, Eppley Building, Room B22, by Jan. 19. back to headlines

Does your New Year's resolution include weight loss and a healthier lifestyle? If so, Creighton Cardiac Center has a program for you. The 10-week program is based on the Cooper Clinic's Solution to the Diet Revolution. (The Cooper Clinic is world renowned for it's research and education on all aspects of wellness.) This program will teach you the common sense approach to help you develop habits that aid in weight loss without gimmicks, pills or deprivation. Classes will be offered on Wednesdays from noon-12:30 p.m. beginning Jan. 21 and will run through March 24 at the Creighton Cardiac Center's Auditorium. The cost of this 10-week program is $60. Class size is limited and pre-registration is required by Friday, Jan. 16. To enroll, please call Rita Frickel at x4950. back to headlines
