THE PHILOSOPHY DEPARTMENT

will host the 1994 Mountain-Plains Philosophy Conference, which will open at 7:30 p.m. on Thursday, Oct. 20, and conclude at noon on Saturday, Oct. 22, in the Student Center. The conference theme is moral philosophy. Key-note speaker will be Dr. James Rachels, professor of Philosophy at the University of Alabama at Birmingham who will address "What Moral Philosophers Should be Doing Today." Dr. Rachels' address on Friday, Oct. 21, at 5:15 p.m. in the Student Center ballroom, is free and open to the public. To register or for more information, call Dr. William O. Stephens, Philosophy, x2632.

THE CENTER FOR Oral Health Research at the School of Dentistry needs patients for a clinical study on placement of tooth-colored fillings near the gum line. If you have teeth with erosion or abrasion defects at, or near the gum line, we need you! Treatment in this study will be provided free by faculty.

For a screening appointment, please call Geri Anthony, x5076.

THE CAMPUS MINISTRY faculty group's bonus fall camp out will take place this weekend, Oct. 14, 15 and 16 at Indian Cave State Park (401-883-2527). The group plans to meet on the western loop on the east side of the shower/restrooms. For more information and directions, please call Bill Brannen, x2441, Kathy Brannen, x2129 or 393-8697.

STUDENT HEALTH WILL offer massage therapy by Dan Hanneman, an extern from Dr. Welbes' College of Massage Therapy, from Monday, Oct. 17 through Wednesday, Nov. 23 in Student Health. The cost for a one-hour Swedish massage is $5. Appointments are available at 1:30, 3 and 4:30 p.m. Mondays, Thursdays and Fridays. Faculty and staff are requested to use the 4:30 time slot. Plan to arrive 10 minutes before your appointment to complete the paperwork. Call x2735 for an appointment.

SEVERAL VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES are available to students, faculty and staff. For information, please call Deanna Casper, student coordinator, x3738, or Mary T. Fulmer, Community Services, x2754, by Friday, Oct. 14.

HEATING SYSTEM: The seasonal change from cooling to heating will begin Monday, Oct. 17. This process takes about two weeks. During this time, all chilled water is valved off, system coils and pipes are drained and the steam is turned on. Once into the heating mode, cooling can no longer be provided to buildings on the main campus. The Maintenance department will do everything within the limitations of the heating and cooling system to assure a comfortable environment during this transition period.

TODAY IS THE last day of Creighton's United Way/CHAD drive. Thank you to all who supported the campaign through generous donations and time.

PLEASE REMEMBER TO send in your RSVPs for the "Celebration of Our Ignatian Heritage," Monday, Oct. 24 at 3:30 p.m. in the Student Center Ballroom. The highlight of the Celebration will be a talk by Fr. John W. Padberg, S.J., on "Is Tomorrow our Permanent Address?" Fr. Padberg is the director of the Institute of Jesuit Sources, St. Louis, MO. Please RSVP to Darlis Vauble in the President's office, x4075 by Friday, Oct. 14.
