MEETING ANNOUNCEMENT

January 17 (Thursday) 6 p.m. (Drinks at 5:30)

Commodore Inn, 24th and Dodge

Mr. Avram Schweitzer, Senior Editor
for Haaretz (Tel Aviv)

POLITICAL-MILITARY RELATIONSHIPS
IN THE MIDDLE EAST

While our guest is not an unbiased source, he is reported by the Council on Foreign Relations to be able to provide more light than heat in a discussion of the prospects for settlement of various questions in the Middle East, especially political and military ones.

Born in Hungary, Mr. Schweitzer has lived in Israel since 1946. From 1949 to 1955 he was a Treasury economist in Tel Aviv and has since been with Haaretz (described by some as the "New York Times of Israel"), first as economic editor, now as senior editor for national security. He has written extensively on relations of the U.S and the USSR with Israel as they affect the Middle East.

Please make your reservations by way of the enclosed card and call me at 536-2836 or 553-4506 for any last minute change or addition. Guests are welcome. Since the Executive Committee will be meeting soon you are urged to submit to the Secretary promptly any nominations you have for new members for the Omaha Committee.

COMING EVENTS

The Canadian Consul General will be our speaker on Monday, February 11. On Sunday, March 31, we will have the annual meeting with the diplomats and government officials bound for Kearney State's World Affairs Conference; spouses are invited that evening. We are also working on a meeting for mid-March on another view of the Middle East and a meeting in April on energy problems. Your suggestions for speakers or subjects are welcome.

Sincerely,
