ALL-UNIVERSITY RECEPTION: The next All-University Reception (for faculty and staff) will be held Friday, Oct. 10, in the Skutt Student Center Ballroom from 4 to 6 p.m. Vice President for Information Systems Conrad (Con) Dietz is the host.

EVERYONE IS INVITED to the Center for the Study of Children's Issues' First Friday brown bag lunch series presentation: "The Peach Project: Do Home Visits Really Help At-Risk Children?" The presentation will be given by Dr. Eleanor Howell and Dianne Travers-Gustafson of the School of Nursing. It will be held in the Union Pacific Room of the Reinert Alumni Library from Noon to 1 p.m. tomorrow. Faculty, students and staff are encouraged to attend this informative discussion.

SHE SAYS HE'S GUILTY. He says he's innocent. What do you say? The "Trial of the Century" will be held tonight at 7 p.m. at the Creighton University Law School Courtroom. The Hon. Judge Doug Johnson and Attorneys-at-Law Todd Hutton and Joe Basque will conduct a reality-based trial on a fictional date rape incident. Will you agree with the jury's verdict? All faculty, staff and students are invited to attend. Sponsored by Residence Life and Peer Education.

INSTRUCTIONAL COMPUTING Committee Seminar: "Multimedia: Courseware for the Future" will be presented by Richard Varn, director of information technology services, production at the University of Northern Iowa, on Wednesday, Oct. 8, from 3 to 4 p.m. in the ITEC Classroom. He will address multimedia courseware, tools and strategies including the use of voice, video and data objects.

LABORATORY SAFETY REMINDER: Fume hoods control exposure to toxic, offensive or flammable vapors. The hood is not an appropriate means of disposing of chemicals through evaporation. It also is not the appropriate place to store large amounts of chemicals. The more chemicals or apparatus stored in the fume hood, the less efficient air flow in the hood becomes, and the probability of accident or fire greatly increases. For more information, contact Environmental Health and Safety at 546-6404.

HISTORY OF MEDICINE CLUB: "Homosexuality in Ancient Rome" will be presented by Dr. Plinio Pioreschi on Tuesday, Oct. 7, at 7:30 p.m. at his home at 1315 S. 79th St.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY from the Deglman Center for Ignatian Spirituality: "Remember us for life, King who loves life; write us into the book of life, for Your sake, Lord of life."—from the liturgy for Rosh Hashanah, the Jewish New Year
