

Linoleum blocks by

ANTONIO FRASCONI

to illustrate Twelve Fables of Aesop newly narrated by Glenway Wescott and published by The Museum of Modern Art, New York

12 Fables of Aesop

Copyright 1954 The Museum of Modern Art

PRINTED IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

Library of Congress Catalogue Card Number: 54-12967

TWELVE FABLES

The Starved Farmer and His Fat Dogs

The Fishermen with the Stone in Their Net

The Caged Nightingale and the Intelligent Bat

The Man Bitten by a Flea

The Hare with Ability and the Tortoise with Staying Power

The Bee-keeper Robbed and Stung

The Ambitious Woman and the Fat Hen

The Crab in the Mouth of the Fox

The Gnat, the Lion, and the Spiderweb

The Jackdaw with Eclectic Plumage

The Flattered Raven and the Crafty Fox

The Stag in His Own Opinion