WHAT ARE THOSE PURPLE ribbons for? October is Domestic Violence Month. In remembrance of victims of violence, people are being asked to wear purple ribbons tomorrow (or all month if they wish). Pick up your purple ribbon today or tomorrow from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the booth near the cafeteria at St. Joseph Hospital. For more information, please call Dr. Joann Schaefer at Creighton Family Practice, x4111.

THERE'S STILL TIME TO REGISTER! Reservations for the next Employee Development program, "Diversity Awareness," are still being accepted. This interactive program has been presented to CU supervisors during the past year and is now available to all employees. Join Dr. Jeannette Seaberry and John Pierce as they focus on how diversity affects today's workplace. The program will be held Thursday, Oct. 10, at 2 p.m. in the Skutt Student Center, Room 105. Contact Debra Daly, x2422, for further details or to register.

THE SOCIAL SCIENCE DATA LAB will offer a one-day workshop, "Word for Windows 95," on Wednesday, Oct. 16, from 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. This workshop is designed for faculty and academic support staff. It will focus on developing and using style sheets for tasks related to academic support. There is no charge for the workshop, but advance reservations are required. To register, call Karen Prescott at x2837.

FALL REUNION: The Medical School Reunion will be held Friday, Oct. 11, at the Red Lion Hotel Ballroom. A social hour begins at 6:30 p.m. followed by dinner at 7:30 p.m. Dr. Delwyn J. Nagengast, BS'52, MD'56, will receive the School's Alumni Merit Award.

PERFORMANCE: Dr. Jesus "Chuy" Negrete, a national scholar and interpreter of Mexican-American folk music, will perform at 7 p.m. at the Skutt Student Center Ballroom on Thursday, Oct. 10. This performance is part of the "Creighton University Cultural Diversity Speakers Series," sponsored by the Nebraska Humanities Council, President's Council on Cultural Diversity, Student Center Programming, Student Board of Governors, Latino Student Organization and the Multicultural Affairs Office. This event is open to all. Questions? Call Ricardo Ariza, x2469.

THE UNITED WAY campaign ends this week. Remember when making a contribution, you can designate your money to any of the 51 agencies. Thanks to all who have already made a contribution.

SPIRITUALITY PLUS: You are invited to the "Spirituality Plus" luncheon on Monday, Oct. 14, from noon to 1 p.m. in the Skutt Student Center, Room 104. The videotape presentation will be "Discovering Everyday Spirituality" with Thomas Moore, author of "Care of the Soul," and other speakers. Please bring your brown bag lunch. Call Joan Lanahan or Fr. Jack Zuercher, S.J., at x3056 for more information.

STERLING SILVER JEWELRY SALE: The St. Joseph Hospital Service League is sponsoring a sterling silver jewelry sale Oct. 14-15 from 7 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the BECIC Room (glassed in area behind the cafeteria). Proceeds will benefit St. Joseph Hospital Service League fund raising projects.

A ONE-DAY CONFERENCE for all levels of desktop publishers will be held Wednesday, Oct. 23, at the Peter Kier Conference Center. Learn more about choosing desktop publishing software, QuarkXPress, Adobe and publishing on the Internet. Complimentary and discount tickets are available. Contact Debra Daly in University College for more information.

AN ALL-UNIVERSITY RECEPTION for faculty and staff (formerly called Happy Hours) will be hosted by Dr. John Cernech, vice president for student services and dean of students, on Friday, Oct. 11, in the Faculty Dining Room from 4 to 6 p.m. Mark your calendar and plan to attend!

YOU ARE INVITED to an international coffee hour tomorrow from 4 to 6 p.m. at Jebbie's. The program theme is "Focus on India and Pakistan." Refreshments from South Asia will be served.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY from the Degelman Center for Ignatian Spirituality: "I can complain because rose bushes have thorns, or I can rejoice because thorn bushes have roses."
