

The De Porres Club

The De Porres Club originated in 1947 as an interracial social club promote understanding between Black and Whites. It's members initially were primarily white Creighton University students. In evolution into an activist organizations drew FBI observation and Mildred Brown's offer of the Star office for meetings. She and Father John Markoe, the club's moderator and guiding force, worked together to actively oppose racism. The paper began publicizing the group's activities and Brown participated in its demonstrations -Â a professional risk as the DePorres Club opposed some of her buisness associates' and advertisers' practices

The group favored economic boycotts to achieve goals and picketed the Omaha Street Railway Company, the Coca Cola plant, and Reed's Ice Cream, urging Black hiring.

Extra The Omaha Star Extra

De Porres CLub Wins First

Round of Coca - Cola Issue

Stories covered by the star
The War Years

The De Porres Club

promote understanding between Black and White. Its members initially were primarily white Creighton University students. In its evolution into an activist organization drew FBI observation with Mildred Brown's offer of the star office for meetings. She and Father John Markoe, the club's moderator and guiding force, worked together to actively oppose racism. The Paper began publicizing the group's activities and Brown Participated in its demonstrations a professional risk as the DePorres Club opposed some of her buisness associates' and advertisers' practices.

(The group favored economic boycotts to achieve goals and picketed the Omaha Street Railway Company, the Coca Cola Plant and Reed's Ice Cream, urging Black hiring.

THE OMAHA STAR

De Porres Club Wins First

Round of Coca-Cola issues, covered by the star

The war years
Turn back the pages of history and behold the loyalty of Black america
"best wishes for tolerant" the omaha star negroes contribution in 5 wars to be dramatized