

TODAY'S FEATURE

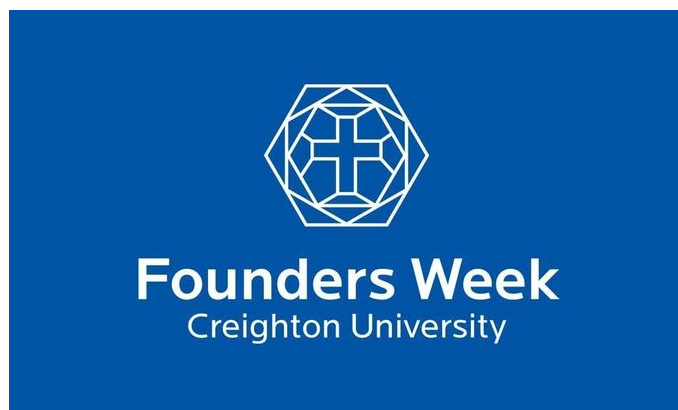

The Faith, Vision and Generosity of Creighton Women

Creighton University has a long, rich history of transformative women making a difference, starting with the founding family itself. It was through her will that Mary Lucretia Creighton gave life to the dream of her late husband, Edward, to found a college. Today, the University continues to be blessed by the far-reaching faith, vision, and generosity of Creighton women. Read more. CREIGHTON IN THE NEWS

Cremation Borrows a Page from the Direct-to-Consumer Playbook

The New York Times, Feb. 3, 2022

"Many of the state-by-state regulations are outdated and completely unnecessary," said Victoria Haneman, JD, a law professor at Creighton University. While consumers benefit from federal regulation around price disclosure, some of these state-level rules protect the companies already operating and create a disincentive for new operators, she said.

PHYSICIAN, EMERGENCY ROOM
SCRIPPS MERCY HOSPITAL

"I wanted to come back in 2022 ... actually come back and redefine myself, and bring a level of compassion that I had that I felt like when I was a third-year medical student at Creighton University," said Clayton Whiting, MD'95, emergency room physician at Scripps Mercy Hospital, in this San Diego Union-Tribune video. "What we do is important, and we do this for a reason. We've been called to do this, and by continuing to support one another, we can continue to do incredible things."
