PROFESSIONAL NOTES: ■ Dr. Allen Schlesinger, professor, Biology, received the first grant from the Teaching Technologies Unit of the Department of Instructional Technology. The grant has provided a Macintosh-based Interactive Multimedia System to enhance the curriculum of Biology courses. The grant was funded by the dean of the Arts and Sciences, the academic vice president, Instructional Technology and Biology. If you are interested in applying for a similar grant, contact Julie Hamilton, instructional designer, Instructional Technology, E-2543. ■ Marianne Culhane, professor of Law, served on the Nebraska Supreme Court Judicial Nominating Commission which screened applicants for the Nebraska Supreme Court. ■ Dr. Shirley Scritchfield, associate professor of Sociology, presented a paper, "Voices in the Wind: Feminist Impact on the Path of Reproductive Technologies," at the annual meeting of the American Sociological Association in Pittsburgh. ■ Dr. Vasant Raval, associate dean, College of Business Administration, presented "Perspectives on Videotex in Education," at the Worldwide Videotex Conference in Edinburgh, Scotland. Raval was one of 70 delegates from 25 countries attending the conference. ■ Dr. John Gleason, professor of Decision Sciences and Fellow in the Center for Health Policy and Ethics, and Muthu Karuppan, associate professor of Management Information Systems, are the authors of "Ad Hoc Decisions and the Evolution of Technology Policy," that has been accepted for publication in IEEE Technology and Society.

SCULPTOR RICHARD HUNT will visit the Fine and Performing Arts Department with an exhibit of his recent work on Wednesday, Sept. 16. Festivities begin with a lecture at 6 p.m. in the Rigge Science Lecture Hall, followed at 7 p.m. by a reception and viewing in the Fine Arts Gallery. The exhibit runs through Oct. 16.

THE STAFF ADVISORY Council is accepting nominations from non-exempt staff members (C1-C10, M1-M7, T1-T13) in the Vice President for Student Services area who are interested in serving one three-year term on the council. Nomination forms have been mailed to the staff members. Linda Dorsee must receive all nominations by 4 p.m. on Sept. 15. If you have any questions, please contact Dorsee at W-2094.

MARK YOUR CALENDAR: The Academic Council will meet at 4 p.m. on Thursday, Sept. 24 in the Student Center, room 105. The Faculty Caucus will meet at 3 p.m., prior to the council.

"HINDUISM in Everyday Life," will be the topic of the first Inter-faith Dialogue brown bagger on Monday, Sept. 21 from noon-1 p.m. in the Student Center, room 105. Dr. Vasant Raval, College of Business Administration, will cover various topics regarding Hindu life including daily devotions, karma, temples, rituals and festivals. For more information, call E-3056.

CREIGHTON'S SECOND Elderhostel program for 1992 convenes at Nebraska's Platte River State Park, Oct. 4-9 and features an intensive study of the river. Participants must be at least 60 years old, or the spouse or companion of someone who is. The program will cover the unique ecology of the river, the lives of Native Americans before and after the journey of Lewis and Clark and nature photography. Some sleeping spaces in the park remain for participants. Commuters are also welcome. Contact Kathy Adams, Elderhostel Office, E-2843. Cost is $265.

CORPORATE CUP Run participants will be receiving an informational packet via intercampus mail with details about the Sept. 20 run. T-shirts will be distributed to participants located on the east and west campuses on Thursday, Sept. 17 and Friday, Sept. 18. If you plan to be gone on either day, please call E-2088, and Donna Taylor will make arrangements for you to pick up your shirt in the Physical Education and Exercise Sciences office, Kiewit Center, room 200. Off-campus participants may pick up T-shirts in the office on Sept. 17 or 18 from 8 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.

FINANCIAL SYSTEMS and Reporting is now offering Banner Query Refresher Classes. These classes are for you if you have a Banner access number, have attended an initial two and one-half hour class, and feel the need for a refresher course. Classes will be held in the Walt Jahn Building conference room from 1:30-3 p.m. on Wednesday, Sept. 16; from 9-10:30 a.m. on Friday, Sept. 18; and from 9-10:30 a.m. on Tuesday, Sept. 22.
