Fr. Michael Proterra, S.J., is completing his term of office as Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences this academic year. A Search Committee has been named to identify his successor. The Committee is chaired by Dean Robert Pitts of CoBA, and includes Drs. Bette Evans, Greg Zacharias, Francis Klein, Ashton Welch and Fr. Dick Hauser, S.J., of the College faculty; alumni Julie Hefflinger of Omaha and Dr. Bob McQuillan of Creighton's Medical School; and students Brandon Fitzsimmons and Lea Boldt of the Arts Senate.

The Black Employee Network Organization will meet at noon tomorrow in the Skutt Student Center, Room 104. New faculty and staff are welcome.

Mark your calendars for this semester's Wellness Council Luncheons. The first luncheon will be held Monday, Oct. 12, from noon to 1 p.m. "Changes and Losses: Healing???" will be presented by Kathy Kasher and Paula Cellar, both Creighton alums and grief counselors. On Thursday, Dec. 3, "De-Stress the Holidays (complete with massage)" will be presented by Michelle Millard and Marti Voigtlander, both of Creighton. Watch the "Creighton Today (Blue News)" for more information.

Attention Faculty: Please remind students who wish to place out of English 150 for the Spring Term that they need to submit portfolios no later than Friday, Oct. 16. Portfolio guidelines are available through the Composition Program's web page at <http://mockingbird.creighton.edu/english/comp.htm>. Contact Director of Composition Megan O'Neill with any questions at x2519 or by e-mail moneill@creighton.edu.

Manresa Forum: "Finding God in Cyberspace: Ministry on the Web" will be presented by Fr. Don Doll, S.J., on Wednesday, Oct. 14, from 7:30 to 8:30 a.m. at the Omaha Club, 2002 Douglas St. Fr. Doll will take a prayerful look at the information superhighway. Are people's prayer lives and the Internet compatible? What kinds of resources are out there? Where do people start? Fr. Doll will look at these questions and give an on-line demonstration of what kind of resources are available. RSVP by Monday, Oct. 12, to x2888.

Thank you to everyone who helped make the Admissions Open House a success. Approximately 526 people visited campus last Sunday. The feedback Admissions has received has been very positive. Please mark your calendars for the next Open House scheduled for Sunday, Nov. 8.

The Bookstore will have a sidewalk sale tomorrow from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. All merchandise on the sidewalk will be 25 percent off the lowest marked price. Most of the merchandise has already been drastically reduced. Sodexo will be selling a hot dog, chips and a Coke for $1. Also, if you don't see what you like outside, all clothing and gifts inside will be 20 percent off on Friday and Saturday.

"Take a Trolley to the Past": Tour 12 historic homes in the Bemis Park and Joslyn Castle Neighborhood on Sunday, Sept. 27, from 1 to 5 p.m. Tickets will be sold at Joslyn Castle Carriage House (3920 Davenport St.) and Augustana Lutheran Church (38th and Lafayette Streets) for $7 per person. For more information, contact Monique Donahoe at x2703.

Tune in to KIOS 91.5 FM on Monday, Sept. 28, for "Talking History" (10 a.m.) and "Creighton Healthwise" (10:30 a.m.). Monday's "Talking History" will be a program on the 150th anniversary of the California Gold Rush. Find out what started the great rush while Dr. Bryan Le Beau, chairman of the History Department, talks with well-known historian Malcolm Rohrbough. J.S. Holliday, another historian takes a look at the impact and consequences of the gold rush. On "Creighton Healthwise," tune in and hear an interview with Dr. Eugene Rich, professor and chair of the Department of Medicine and holder of the Tenet Healthcare Endowed Chair. Dr. Rich will discuss trends in health care and research designed to improve health care practice. "Creighton Healthwise" is produced and hosted by Lori Elliott-Bartle of Public Relations.

Opera Omaha is producing a world premiere opera, Eric Hermansson's "SOUL," Nov. 11, 13 and 15, at the Rose Theater. As of Sept. 22, two-thirds of the seats had been sold, leaving only about 700 seats available for the three performances. The opera is based on a Willa Cather short story with music by Libby Larson, a prominent and well-recognized young woman composer, set in Nebraska and sung in English. This production should be of great interest to Creighton art aficionados. Ticket information can be acquired by calling Opera Omaha at 346-7372.

The special today at the Coffee House is a BLT sandwich served with pasta salad. The soup of the day is Hot and Sour.

Internet 101: "World Wide Web Advanced" will be held Tuesday, Sept. 29, from 3 to 4 p.m. in the Reinert Alumni Library Classroom (main level). The advanced session covers search engines and search formulation. It includes a demonstration and comparison of selected search engines such as Alta Vista, WebCrawler and Yahoo which are used for finding Web sites by key word or subject categories. For more information, contact David Sherwood (x2927 or davids@creighton.edu) or Chris Le Beau (x1757 or clbeau@creighton.edu).

Do your weekend plans include River City Roundup? Stop by Human Resources (Wareham Building, 2222 Burt St.) and purchase buttons for $2 each. The buttons entitle you to freebies including boat rides, stagecoach rides, pony rides, canoe rides, pancake breakfast and reduced prices on admissions to many other attractions. Buy a button and join the fun!

Homecoming 1998--Sky's the Limit! is this week. The annual golf cart parade is today at 4 p.m. on the mall. Following the parade is the Homecoming Pep Rally at 5 p.m. For a complete listing of Homecoming events, check the Student Activities Web Calendar or contact the Student Activities Office at x1715.

Laboratory Safety Reminder: Solvent containers must be tightly capped to prevent evaporation and worker exposure and to minimize the risk of a spill. Chemical disposal by evaporation is a violation of federal law.

Hispanic Heritage Month Events: Compania De Danza Folklorico from the Universidad Autonoma De Chihuahua, Instituto De Belles Artes, will provide a performance of traditional music and dance of Mexico on Saturday, Sept. 26, at the Creighton University Lied Education Center for the Arts from 3 to 4 p.m. This event is sponsored by the Office of Multicultural Affairs and Latino Student Association. Nebraskans for Peace Arts Festival-A fiesta de los artes, will be held Saturday, Sept. 26, from noon until 8 p.m. at the Skutt Student Center. There will be several performances by musicians throughout the day. Visual artists with exhibits will include Linda Garcia, Pamela Hinson, Pamela Berry, Jackie Eihausen and others. Join others for a full day of incredible art, outdoor music, poetry, food and fresh air. Bring blankets and/or a chair. Sponsored by the Office of Multicultural Affairs, Latino Student Association, Dance Division Department of Fine and Performing Arts and Nebraskans for Peace.

Habitat Fact of the Day: Campus chapters promote the value of self-empowerment, grass-roots community involvement, leadership development and a commitment to service and social action.

A Daily Reflection page and an On-Line Retreat are two web sites you can visit for prayer and reflection. The Daily Reflection page features a reflection on the scripture readings of the day written by a member of the Creighton community. Today's reflection was written by Larry Gillick, S.J. It can be found at: <http://www.creighton.edu/CollaborativeMinistry/daily.html> The On Line Weekly Retreat also is up and running. This web site features a weekly prayer guide, a photo by Don Doll, S.J., and sample prayers, reading excerpts and some on-line reflecting by participants. If you would like, Collaborative Ministry will help put together groups to reflect on this experience. Look for it now at: <http://www.creighton.edu/CollaborativeMinistry/cmo-retreat.html>
