Fall break immersion information meetings will be held today at noon and again at 12:30 p.m. in the Skutt Student Center, Room 104. Interested Creighton students, faculty and staff are encouraged to attend one of the meetings. This year's fall break experience is WoodsWorks. WoodsWorks is an alternative spring/fall break experience designed by the Sisters of Providence to introduce the principles of eco-justice and Providence Spirituality while engaging in service at and around Saint Mary-of-the-Woods, near Terre Haute, Ind. Service opportunities include planting, building and cleaning, tutoring children and facilitating activities with retired sisters. The trip will cost about $200 (no more) per person. Applications and more information are available online at <http://www.creighton.edu/ccsj/immersions/fbi.html> or at the Creighton Center for Service and Justice (KFC 201) and are due Thursday, Sept. 11, by 4 p.m. in the CCSJ. Participants will leave on Saturday, Oct. 18, and return Friday, Oct. 24. Space is limited, so turn in your applications soon. If you are interested in participating, please contact Ken Reed-Bouley at kreb@creighton.edu or x2754. back to headlines

The Creighton University Pep Band will have an informational meeting for members of the Creighton community interested in joining the band for the 2003-2004 school year. The CU Pep Band is a student organization that plays for Bluejay athletic events. The meeting will be held tonight at 7 p.m. in the Kitty Gaughan Pavilion. Students, faculty, staff and alumni are all eligible to join the Pep Band. Questions can be addressed to pbo@creighton.edu. back to headlines

The best things in life are free, like individual counseling sessions with a retirement consultant. Bill Evans from TIAA-CREF and Brad Smith from Fidelity will be conducting one-on-one sessions at Creighton. They can answer your questions on investment planning issues such as long-term investment strategies, mutual funds, IRA's and much more. The consultants can assist you in making decisions that are right for you. The Fidelity consultant will be on campus Tuesday, Sept. 9 (Skutt Student Center, Room 209). To schedule an appointment, call Fidelity at 1-800-642-7131. The TIAA-CREF consultant will be on campus Wednesday, Sept. 10 (Skutt Student Center, Room 209). To schedule an appointment, please visit the TIAA-CREF confidential website at <http://www.tiaa-cref.org/moc> or call Jess Lentfer at 1-800-842-2009, ext. 2641. back to headlines

The Pikes of Creighton University are sponsoring a softball tournament to benefit the Make-a-Wish Foundation on Saturday, Sept. 6. Any and all teams are welcome. Start time will be between 1:30 and 2 p.m. The entry fee is $5 per player, and teams should have 8-10 members. It will be held on the baseball field outfield on Creighton's campus. Bats and balls will be provided, and gloves will not be necessary. To sign up, e-mail skip@creighton.edu with your team name, team captain's name, and number of players, or watch for information on Creighton's campus. Call Andrew Collins at 740-1780 with any questions. back to headlines

Fall Weight Management Classes: With the coming change of seasons, this is a great time to make changes in your lifestyle to lose weight. The Creighton Cardiac Center will be offering a six-week Weight Management Program to help you lose weight. The sessions will be held on Wednesdays from Sept. 17-Oct. 29 from noon-12:30 p.m. at the Cardiac Center Auditorium. The cost of the program is $36. Class size is limited. For questions or to register, please call Rita Frickel at x4950 by Sept. 11. back to headlines

The Osteoporosis Research Center is looking for people who were exposed to the sun for about six hours a day, four days a week this past summer. The Center has a quick and easy research study for men and women, ages 20-45, to evaluate the relationship of sunshine, vitamin D and skin color. Monetary stipend available. Volunteers needed by Sept. 15. Call Rachel Dowd at 280-BONE (2663) for more information. back to headlines

Creighton University will be hosting the annual Omaha Jesuit College Fair on Monday, Sept. 8, from 6:30-9 p.m. at the Omaha Marriott, located at 10220 Regency Circle. This year 13 Jesuit colleges and universities from across the country will be represented. This is a great opportunity for high school students to become more familiar with various Jesuit colleges nationwide. The following are the Jesuit colleges and universities that will be in attendance: Creighton University, College of Holy Cross, Fairfield University, Georgetown University, John Carroll University, Loyola University of Chicago, Loyola University of New Orleans, Marquette University, Regis University, Rockhurst University, Saint Louis University, University of Detroit Mercy and Xavier University. If you know of someone who would like additional information on this event, please contact Erin Swanson in Undergraduate Admissions at x2703 or at eswanson@creighton.edu. back to headlines

The University Committee on Rank and Tenure will hold its Annual Forum on Monday, Sept. 15, from 2:30-4:30 p.m. in the Hixson-Lied Science Building, Room 404. Faculty and administrators are invited to this review of the rank and tenure process at Creighton University. A question-and-answer session will be included. back to headlines
