NEW FOOD SERVICE ANNOUNCED: Dr. John C. Cernech is pleased to announce that a committee comprised of students, staff, faculty and administration has recommended the selection of Morrison's Custom Management of Mobile, Ala. as the new University food service contractor. The committee spent many hours reviewing the proposals of the six companies submitting bids. The process narrowed the possibilities to three companies that were then asked to give seven-hour presentations including the introduction of their proposed food service and catering directors. We are pleased that Morrison's has accepted our invitation for the 1992/93 year. They look forward to serving the University's very diverse needs.

HELP CELEBRATE EDWARD MURPHY'S 65 years of service to Creighton University at an open house Monday, June 1 from 10 a.m.-noon in the Student Center Ballroom. Murphy graduated from Creighton in 1927 with a B.S. in Commerce and has served the University in various roles ever since. He served as director of the student union, assistant treasurer, bursar, business manager, personnel director and was the administrator of the first affirmative action program at Creighton. He currently serves as risk manager. Lasting legacies bearing his name include the Edward D. Murphy Building and the Ed Murphy Scholarship Fund, which was established by anonymous donors as a tribute to Murphy, who as business manager, had helped numerous students over the years by giving no-interest loans from his own pocket. Help us recognize 65 years of exemplary service and devotion to Creighton. Everyone is welcome.
