

THE BLUE NEWS

CAMPUS EVENTS

TODAY

PHONE — 2069

E-MAIL — BLUENEWS@CU

FAX — 2549

CREIGHTON
UNIVERSITY

MONDAY, MARCH 20, 1995

PROFESSIONAL NOTES: ■ Dr. Robert Churchill, assistant professor of English, has authored an introduction for a new edition of Sir F. E. S. Adair's A Summer in High Asia, a nineteenth-century travel/adventure narrative recently published by John Culler and Sons Press. ■ Dr. Willis Gray, assistant clinical professor of endodontics, Dr. Kenneth Knowles, associate professor of endodontics, and Dr. Mark Taylor, associate professor of pediatric dentistry, were elected as new members of Epsilon Chapter of Omicron Kappa Upsilon Honor Dental Society. ■ Jerry Horning, associate professor and chair of fine and performing arts, Paul Nichols, director of environmental health and safety, and Susan McGilvrey, lecturer in fine and performing arts, will attend the National Council on Education for Ceramic Arts (NCECA) in Minneapolis, Minn., this week. Horning will present a panel on "Clay in the Intercity High School." ■ Dr. Mary Kuhlman, adjunct assistant professor of English, presented her paper "Public Places and Railroad Times in Gaskell's North and South" at the Fourth Annual Conference on 18th and 19th Century British Women Writers at Notre Dame University. ■ Dr. Thomas Kuhlman, associate professor of English, has been elected to the board of directors of the Historical Society of Douglas County. ■ David Larson, professor of law, recently completed a formal Review and Analysis of proposed amendments to the Bulgarian Labor Code. Professor Larson was invited to comment on the proposed amendments by the Central and East European Law Initiative (CEELI), an American Bar Association international legal assistance project. ■ Joanne McLean, instructor in oral biology, received first

EVENTS TODAY:

Alcoholics Anonymous meeting, noon, St. John's, Celebration Room.
Women's Issues Week Event, Susan Jacques, noon, Student Center, Room 105.

Eucharistic Adoration, 7 p.m., St. John's, Jesuit Martyrs Chapel.

EVENTS TUESDAY:

Tumor Conference, "Endometrial Stromal Sarcoma," Dr. David Katz, Dr. Robert Coleman and Dr. Albert Frank, 11:45 a.m. lunch, noon conference, St. Joseph Hospital, Seminar Room.

Women's Issues Week Event, Topic: Research on the economic status of women in Omaha, Carol Schrader and Diane Lozier, noon, Student Center, East Ballroom.

Pi Sigma Alpha Political Science Lecture, "Majority Rule, Minority Rights: An Examination of the 1965 Voting Rights Act," James Pieper, 12:30 p.m., Admin., Spillane Room.

Graphic Standards Seminar, 3 p.m., Student Center, Room 105.

place at the Toastmasters Area 32 International Speech Contest. ■ Dr. Greg Zacharias, assistant professor and associate chair of English, has accepted an invitation to write the "Henry James" section of American Literary Scholarship (ALS) for Duke University Press. ALS is one of the primary research and reference tools in the discipline.

PROJECT DIRECTOR NAMED: Dr. W. Wayne Young, associate professor and chair of pharmacy practice, has been named the project director for the U S West Academic Development and Technology Program. Dr. Young will undertake this administrative role on a part-time basis starting today. This faculty development program is a result of a major gift from two U S West organizations to the Creighton 2000 campaign. Watch the Blue News for further announcements regarding the application process for becoming a "U S West Fellow."

HENRI RENARD LECTURE: The CU Philosophy Department will present the Fifteenth Annual Henri Renard Lecture Thursday, March 23 at 7:30 p.m. in the Reinert Alumni Library, Union Pacific Room. Dr.

Susan Wolf, professor of philosophy at The Johns Hopkins University, will present "Meaningful Lives in a Meaningless World." The lecture is free and open to the public.

INITIATION OF A USENET News service has been under development at Creighton for some time. The University's main problem has been finding enough machine resources and personnel to manage the service. The Office of the Vice President for Information Services, with Fr. Morrison's support, mobilized a committee of faculty members to look at starting the service this semester with a limited schedule. Effective immediately, the committee has recommended that Technical Services make available the following newsgroups for the remainder of the semester and over the summer months: news, comp, soc, rec, talk, bit, sci, bionet, midnet, misc, gnu and info. Expansion of the service to include other groups will be considered later by the committee for next fall. Any questions on how to reach and subscribe to the newsgroups now available should be directed to HELPDESK@cu or jduche@cu.

FAREWELL RECEPTION: You are invited to attend a farewell reception for the Rev. D. Edward (Eddie) Mathie, S.J., in thanks and gratitude for his service to Creighton University and the Jesuit Community Monday, March 27 from 4 to 6 p.m. in the Student Center Ballroom. Fr. Mathie will become Provincial of the Wisconsin Province of the Society of Jesus.

OUR SYMPATHIES TO Dr. Sally O'Neill, associate dean of continuing medical education, on the recent passing of her mother, Edna Cleo Cole. Funeral services were today in Mountain Grove, Mo.

THE ACADEMIC COUNCIL will meet Thursday, March 23 at 4 p.m. in the Reinert Alumni Library, Union Pacific Room. The Faculty Council will meet on that same date at 3 p.m. Each member is asked to bring his/her copy of the Proposal of the Ad Hoc Committee on Rank and Tenure to the meeting.

FR. NEIL CAHILL is still at Mercy Care Center, 1870 S. 75th St. He is in room #910 and can be reached by phone at 393-7163. His knee replacement surgery has now been scheduled for Monday, March 27. Your calls and visits are welcome.

THE AAA TRAVEL office will close at 4:30 p.m. on Friday, March 24.

LABORATORY SAFETY REMINDERS: All commercial and secondary chemical containers must be labeled in accordance with Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) standards. This includes: date of receipt/transfer, chemical name and basic hazard warnings. For further information, contact Environmental Health and Safety at 449-6400.

INTERNET 101: "FTP/Archie" will be held Thursday, March 23 at 3:30 p.m. in the Reinert Alumni Library classroom. Learn how to find and retrieve files containing text, statistics, images, software or sound. For DOS, Windows and Mac users. Call David Sherwood, x2927, or Chris Le Beau, x1757, for more information.

LUNCH AND LEARN Workshop: "Searching IPA on CD-ROM" will be held Thursday, March 23 from noon to 12:45 p.m. in the Health Sciences Library, Seminar Room 114. IPA, the International Pharmaceutical Abstracts, provides information on all phases of professional pharmaceutical practice and related areas of clinical medicine, drug development, regulation, business, economics, technology and education. IPA abstracts material from approximately 700 journals. This database is now available on the CU Health Sciences Library-Pharmacy file server and can be searched over JAYNet. Call x5138 for more information.

THE ILAC/COLLEGE of Arts and Sciences' Spring Semester Abroad Program in the Dominican Republic will be hosting an informational session tomorrow at 7 p.m. in the Student Center Ballroom. All students and faculty are welcome to attend. The program is open to all faculty from the College of Arts and Sciences and all undergraduate students. Applications will be available at the presentation. Call x3179 for more information.

THE SECOND SESSION of spring employee aerobics has begun. The class meets Mondays, Wednesdays and Thursdays from 5 to 6 p.m. on Court E in the Kiewit Fitness Center (KFC) and will run until Finals Week, May 4. Cost is $15 and you must register in person at KFC. For more information, call x2848.

JERRY HORNING, associate professor and chair of fine and performing arts, will be the subject of a talk April 11 by Kyle MacMillan, art critic for the Omaha World-Herald. The talks will be held at the Sheldon Memorial Art Gallery in Lincoln and will focus on the contemporary art scene in Nebraska and the rich diversity of art and artists across the state. Admission will be charged. For more information, call the Nebraska Art Association at 472-2540.

FEATURED ENTREES in the Faculty Dining Room this week are: Monday—chopped beef steak; Tuesday—cheese enchiladas; Wednesday—veal parmesan; Thursday—vegetarian lasagna; and Friday—crunchy baked fish.

1995 LENTEN WORKSHOP: Faculty and staff are invited to a Lenten Workshop Saturday, March 25, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the Reinert Alumni Library, Union Pacific Room. Cost is $15 per person and lunch will be served. Guided by the Rev. Richard J. Hauser, S.J., the workshop will focus on the role of suffering in the Christian life. The workshop is also open to alumni, parents and friends of Creighton. Contact the Alumni Relations Office for information and reservations at x2222.

THE CREIGHTON UNIVERSITY School of Medicine and Department of Allergy-Immunology are sponsoring a Distinguished Lecture Series entitled "How the Nose Runs: Neural Control of Mucosal Function" by Dr. James N. Baraniuk Wednesday, March 22 from noon to 1 p.m. at St. Joseph Hospital, Seminar Room. Dr. Baraniuk is an assistant professor of medicine in the Division of Rheumatology, Immunology and Allergy at Georgetown University.

ANYONE INTERESTED in participating in the MS Walk Sunday, April 2, around beautiful Lake Zorinsky, should contact Jim Knudsen, x2281, for registration materials.

WATCH FOR YOUR COPY: Job Questionnaires from Human Resources are in the mail. All employees should receive a copy for completion. Deadline dates: Employees must turn in completed forms to their supervisors by March 24; supervisors must review employee questionnaires and return to Human Resources no later than March 31.

JOB POSTINGS: 2nd day—Secretary to Clinical Dept. Chairman, Pathology, C-09. Expanded position descriptions are available for viewing on the campus network JAYNet. These position descriptions are updated every week on Friday afternoon.