Holiday Spirit 2001: Creighton's Holiday Spirit drive continues to receive an outpouring of support from the Creighton community. Here are the most recent areas to join the effort: Math/Computer Science Department--St. Vincent DePaul's family shelter; Department of Communication Studies--adopting two families; Department of OB/GYN--adopting a family of six; School of Pharmacy and Allied Health Professions--adopting as many as three families through the Salvation Army; Residence Life--adopting a family through CCSJ; Student Activities Office--The Shelter; Educational Opportunity Programs Department--the Salvation Army/Food bank; Division of University Ministry--St. Vincent de Paul Family Shelter and Catholic Charities' St. Martin de Porres Center (adopting a family of five); and Counseling and Psychological Services--providing gifts of toys, clothing, and holiday dinner boxes to Sacred Heart parish on Pine Ridge Indian Reservation.

Staff Advisory Council Accepting Coats: The Staff Advisory Council's Holiday Spirit project is the Latina Resource Center. The council is collecting clean, usable women's winter coats. There is a particular need for larger women's sizes. Donations will be accepted through Dec. 7. Make your donation to any Staff Advisory Council representative. For a list of council members, visit the Staff Advisory Council website at www.creighton.edu/sac.

Keep the spirit Going--Don't forget: If your area has decided on a Holiday Spirit project, please notify Joleen Richwine at joleen@creighton.edu. Or you can sign up for a project over the Web by clicking on the Holiday Spirit link in the upper left-hand corner of Creighton's homepage, www.creighton.edu.

The next meeting of the Sexual Orientation Issues Task Force will take place Tuesday, Dec. 4, from 3:30-4:30 p.m. in the University College Conference Room. The main topic of discussion will be plans for Task Force activities for the spring semester. The Sexual Orientation Issues Task Force is open to all interested faculty, staff, students and administrators. Monthly meetings address sexual orientation issues within the Creighton community. Call Cathy Pedersen at x2205 for more information.

College of Arts and Sciences Senior Check: Creighton College of Arts and Sciences seniors who plan to graduate in May 2002 should make an appointment for a senior check. This is a short appointment and confirms that all requirements are being met for graduation. You can set up an appointment by calling

If you are looking for a very special Christmas gift, the Campus Quilters 2001 holiday spirit raffle quilt will be raffled off on Wednesday, Dec. 5, at the Child Development Center Chili Soup Luncheon in the Skutt Student Center Ballroom. Tickets will be sold there before the drawing, but also are available at the Student Center Information Desk and from any of the Campus Quilters.

The Martin Luther King Jr. Day Planning Committee is soliciting nominations for the 2002 Martin Luther King Student Leadership Award. This award honors Creighton students who, in the spirit of Dr. King, work to make the University a more inclusive community by fostering an environment supportive of racial, ethnic and religious equality and harmony. To be considered for this award, a person must be: a student in good standing and currently enrolled at Creighton University; involved in activities that promote social justice, peace and religious, racial and cultural harmony; concerned for and involved in service of the poor, the oppressed and the marginalized; able to inspire and lead others and to work with them on a team; to the religious and ethical dimensions and values fostered at Creighton University, whatever the person's religious affiliation. Nominations are due Friday, Dec. 14, to Lori Spanbauer, Campus Ministry. For a nomination form, contact Spanbauer at x2992 or spanbau@creighton.edu.

Please announce to medical, graduate and health science students, interns and residents: Call for Papers--The Midwest Student Biomedical Research Forum (MSBRF) will be held at the DoubleTree Hotel in Omaha on Saturday, Feb. 16. MSBRF provides a unique opportunity for young scientists to share their work and have it objectively judged by faculty from Creighton and UNMC. The Forum is soliciting for presentations of original basic and clinical science research by medical, graduate and health science students, interns and residents. Cash prizes will be awarded. The Forum is co-sponsored by the University of Nebraska College of Medicine and Creighton University with major support from the American Medical Association--Education and Research Foundation. The deadline for submission of abstracts is Dec. 15. To request an application packet, please call Charlene Stender, Office of the Vice President of Health Sciences, at x2973.
