THE NEXT "Creighton Healthwise" features holiday health interviews with exercise physiologist Rich Neito and nutritionist Maureen Kramer of the Cardiac Center. Neito and Kramer will give tips on avoiding typical holiday weight gain through exercise and diet. Tune in at 10 a.m. on Monday, Dec. 1, on KIOS 91.5 FM.

"YOU'RE DRINKING? I'M DRIVING." It is that simple. At this time of year, people like you to plan ahead for the holidays. For many, it is a time to buy presents, write cards and celebrate traditions. December is a great time for fun and festivity. It also is the month when impaired driving peaks. Take the steps to be a responsible party-goer or host, and do not let alcohol take the joy out of your holiday season.

THE ANNUAL Thanksgiving Day Mass is tomorrow at 9 a.m. at St. John's Church. Faculty, students, staff and friends are invited to join Creighton alumni for this Mass and the continental breakfast, hosted by the Alumni Relations Office, immediately following in the Skutt Student Center Ballroom.

LABORATORY SAFETY REMINDER: All carcinogenic and mutagenic materials should be stored separately from all other chemicals in a locked cabinet with appropriate signage. Many halogenated solvents are carcinogenic or suspected carcinogens. For more information, contact Environmental Health and Safety at 546-6404.

WILL YOU HELP RAISE MONEY for children with AIDS? On Monday, Dec. 1, a table will be set up in the Skutt Student Center from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. where you can donate money that will be presented to the Pediatric AIDS Foundation. On Tuesday, Dec. 2, money also will be collected at the program "Friendship in the Age of AIDS," at 7:30 p.m. The program is sponsored by the Panhellenic Council, Interfraternity Council, Peer Education, NRHH and Residence Life. You also can send a donation in intercampus mail to: Heather Anderson, NRHH, 1503 Kenefick.
