

DE PORRES CLUB NOTES

DePorres Club members gave a Christmas party for the children of the neighborhood on Saturday afternoon, December 18th, at the Center. About fifty children were present; each received a gift. There were games and refreshments for all.

Sevid Pointexter led a discussion on the aims and purposes of the Omaha DePorres club at the center on Saturday evening, December 18. The four basic human rights, as set forth in the Credo of the club were analyzed. These rights are:

1. The right to live a full complete life, to the utmost of one's capacity, both in private and in public.

2. The right to be treated with the respect and dignity due every member of the human race.

3. The right to be integrated into the solidarity of the human race.

4. The right to choose the best means to living the fullest and most complete life possible.

to be immoral, since they violate these rights which are derived from the natural law.
