Dear Denny:

In case Father John didn't show you the enclosed, I am sending it to you for your information. In case we fail to get my memoirs published, your copy will assume greater value as being one of the only four copies.

You and Gene, however, will be interested in knowing that now

P.S. Thanks for Xmas greeting - Wm M. M.

I have written to Curtis-Brown, Ltd. of N.Y., agents for authors, asking them professionally to take over my manuscript and secure a publisher for it. I asked them to secure only a secular publishing house, not a Catholic; because the Catholic publishers are usually too racist to take it and too lacking in courage; and even if one were to undertake to publish my book they could not put it into proper circulation.

I will arrive in Omaha the morning of Feb. 14. Why not invite Ike to banquet. Love
Wm M. M.
