INTERNET 101: "UnCover Reveal" will be held on Wednesday, Sept. 24, from 3 to 4 p.m. in the Reinert Alumni Library classroom. UnCover Reveal is a current awareness service, fully subsidized with a site license. The session will cover how to set up a profile and how to select journal titles or topics via the Reveal Web page for automatic e-mail notification of articles of interest. Open to faculty and staff only. For further information, please contact Mary Nash at x2226 or mdnash@cu.

LUNCH AND LEARN WORKSHOP:

"Advanced Searching for WinSPIRS and MacSPIRS Users" will be held Thursday, Sept. 25, at noon in Criss III, Room 354A. Learn to conduct more effective and sophisticated searches to find the information you need. This workshop will explore advanced search techniques not discussed in the Sept. 18 workshop "Using WinSPIRS and MacSPIRS." Bring your lunch. The library provides soft drinks.

BEGINNING on Monday, Sept. 22, Corporate Cup participants can pick up their T-shirts and runners' packets in the Public Relations Office, Wareham Building, Suite B. If you have questions, call Kathy Dare, x2118.

ATTENTION FACULTY and Staff: Share your talents with the Creighton community by entering the Staff and Faculty Amateur Talent Show to be held Thursday, Oct. 23, at 6:30 p.m. in the Lied Education Center for the Performing Arts. Individual or small group performances accepted. Prizes of $100, $75 and $50 will be awarded. For more information or to request an application form, contact Shirley Spain (x2300), Kathy Dare (x2118), Colleen Hendrick (x5520) or Mary Pat Wearne (x5692).

THANKS TO THE faculty and staff who contributed their time and energy to the success of the Admissions Open House on Sunday, Sept. 14. Approximately 600 visitors had an opportunity to experience the "Creighton family" first-hand.

FACULTY: Remind your students that a timed practice general GRE test will be administered on Wednesday, Oct. 1, from 5 to 9 p.m. in Rigge Science, Room 110. Study tips for preparing for the GRE also will be discussed. Tests will be scored and estimates of results will be calculated. Cost is a $5 contribution to the Elizabeth A. Dahl Student Research fund (cash or check made out to Creighton University). Be sure to register with Dr. Laura Finken in Rigge Science 128 by Monday, Sept. 29. Space and materials are limited.

CELEBRATION: Thursday, Sept. 25, marks the Skutt Student Center's 10th year of serving the Creighton campus. To thank all of its patrons, the Student Center will have entertainment and prizes Sept. 23-25. On the 23rd, Blue Moon Ghetto will perform in the Fireplace Lounge from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. On the 24th, Jeff Quinn will perform his one-on-one magic from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. On the 25th, 1) a cookout will be held on the patio outside of Jebbies; 2) the time capsule that wasn't buried in 1987 will be interred in the 1st level patio planter, and 3) a drawing for a trip to Kansas City and a $100 gift certificate to the Bookstore will be held. University fee-paying students may enter their names for drawings of dozens of prizes.

DR. JAMES PLATZ, professor of biology, will be among the scientists whose work will be examined on "Call of the Wild," the new Nebraska ETV documentary which airs tonight at 9 p.m. and Sunday, Sept. 21, at 11 a.m. The program follows scientists from the Midwest who are striving to save threatened and endangered species.

RIVER CITY ROUNDUP festivities begin Sept. 24 and run through Sept. 29. This is the 16th anniversary of one of the largest community celebrations in the Midwest. Roundup buttons, which entitle you to free or reduced prices on many attractions, are available for $2 in the Human Resources Department in the Wareham Building at 23rd and Burt streets.

THE NEBRASKA CHORAL Arts Society (NCAS) announces its 1997-98 Concert Season with four great concerts for $38. Purchase season tickets or singles through Fr. David Schultenover, S.J. (dnover@cu, x2199, or call for a brochure). Concert dates are: Nov. 1, Dec. 12 or 13, March 7 and May 2, all at 7 p.m. Also, please consider purchasing a Pleasure Pac coupon book for $20 to benefit the NCAS.

THE OSTEOPOROSIS Research Center is looking for women and men, 55-85 years old, with low dietary calcium intakes, to participate in a research study. Study participants must be willing to add three cups of low-fat milk to their current daily diets. The study will last 16 weeks, and six visits to the research center will be required. A stipend is available. If interested, please call Patty Packard at x4680.
