

All Things Ignatian

The Center for Student Integrity Following in the Footsteps of Ignatius

INTEGRITY

Challenge yourself to develop a personal code of positive values; to live a healthy, balanced lifestyle; and to discover and embrace the responsibilities of your freedom, intelligence, and intrinsic worth.

“Don't bother just to be better than your contemporaries or predecessors. Try to be better than yourself.”
- William Faulkner

DIGNITY

Respect and promote the dignity of all people. Treat yourself and others as inherently valuable and worthwhile.

“Every life deserves a certain amount of dignity, no matter how poor or damaged the shell that carries it.”
- Rick Bragg

Develop

Create

WHAT WOULD IGNATIUS
DO

Partner

Encourage

ENGAGE / REFLECT / CHANGE

The occupation of a student is to be a learner in all situations. The intent of The Center for Student Integrity is that we might be able to connect with students who have made mistakes and use the four core values present in our Code of Conduct to advance what they know or understand about themselves as both individuals and members of a larger community.

COMMUNITY

Choose to be a positive, productive, and committed part of our community.

“Students of all cultures are supposed to come together on campus to learn from each other and about each other.”
- Sandra Day O'Connor

DEVELOPMENT

Welcome compassion and consider the needs and the well being of others. Encourage others to develop moral, spiritual, intellectual, emotional, personal, and vocational abilities.

“Constant development is the law of life, and a man who always tries to maintain his dogmas in order to appear consistent drives himself into a false position.”
- Gandhi

Sponsored by the Creighton University Jesuit Community, in association with the Degelman Center for Ignatian Spirituality.