

THE BLUE NEWS

CAMPUS EVENTS

TODAY

PHONE — 2069

FAX — 2549

CREIGHTON
UNIVERSITY

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 7, 1994

MICHAEL J. LACROIX has accepted the position of Director of the Reinert Alumni Library. LaCroix most recently was director of Library Services and associate professor at Albright College, Reading, PA. He has an M.S.L.S. from the University of Kentucky and an M.B.A. in management from the University of North Carolina at Greensboro. He will take up his new position at Creighton in the Spring semester.

STUDENTS, FACULTY and staff interested in meeting some of the top college basketball coaches in the country are invited to take part in the Creighton University-Reebok Coaches Clinic, Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 22nd and 23. You will have the opportunity to meet and learn from Jim Harrick, UCLA; Greg White, University of Charleston (W.Va); Phil "Flip" Saunders, Sioux Falls Skyforce (Continental Basketball Association); as well as Creighton's Dana Altman, Greg Gensing, Len Gordy, Kevin McKenna and Brian Fish. The clinic will also feature full-scale practice sessions with the Creighton basketball team. The fee for the clinic is $50. For more information, call Kevin McKenna, x5782.

THE COSMOPOLITAN CLUB'S 1994 Landmark Holiday Ornament features an illustration of St. John's Church and Creighton's historic Administration Building. Marc Kraft, a Cosmopolitan Club officer and Creighton graduate, will present the first ornament to Creighton president Fr. Michael G. Morrison, S.J., today at 10 a.m. in front of the Church. Proceeds from sales of the ornament, available at $10 each, are donated to diabetes research.

EVENTS TODAY:

"Bob's Bluejays & Bagels," 7 a.m., Garden Cafe Party Room, Rockbrook Village.

Spanish Table, 11:30 a.m.-12:20 p.m., Faculty Dining Room.

Brown bag lunch and video, Tony de Mello Spirituality Group; noon to 1 p.m., Student Center, room 104.

All-University happy hour hosted by George Grieb, 4-6 p.m., Faculty Dining Room.

The School of Medicine annual alumni reunion dinner and Alumni Merit Award presentation; 6:30 p.m. cocktails, 7:30 p.m. dinner, Red Lion Inn, 1616 Dodge.

Soccer: Bluejays vs. Evansville, 7 p.m., Tranquility Park.

"The Boys Next Door," directed by William Hutson, 8 p.m., Interim Performing Arts Center.

EVENTS SATURDAY:

Heart-healthy restaurant dining workshop, 9:30-10:30 a.m., Cardiac Center.

Lady Jays soccer, Creighton vs. Marquette, 7 p.m., Tranquility Park.

"The Boys Next Door," directed by William Hutson, 8 p.m., Interim Performing Arts Center.

EVENTS SUNDAY:

"The Boys Next Door," directed by William Hutson, 2:30 p.m., Interim Performing Arts Center.

Lady Jays soccer, Creighton vs. Oral Roberts, 2 p.m., Tranquility Park.

EVENTS MONDAY:

Health Sciences Library workshop: Richard Jizba, "Social Science & Business Information in Medical Databases," noon-12:45 p.m., Health Sciences Library seminar room.

Gynecological Oncology Rounds: Dr. Robert Bonebrake, noon, Saint Joseph Hospital, room 4844.

CHEMICAL WASTE SHIPMENT: The next chemical waste shipment is scheduled for December 1994. Inventories of waste generated must be submitted to Environmental Health and Safety not later than Nov. 1. Cost estimates will be furnished to generating departments not later than Nov. 15. Purchase orders from the generating departments must be received by Purchasing one week prior to shipment, or the waste cannot be picked up. If you have any questions, call Jennifer Shurnas, x3173, or Paul Nichols, 449-6400.

CONGRATULATIONS TO JIM Flanery, Athletics, for his first place finish overall for Creighton in the 1994 Corporate Cup Run. Congratulations are also in order for Katie Behmer, School of Pharmacy and Allied Health, for her first place finish in Creighton's women's division. Congratulations to everyone who participated in the race.

STUDENT HEALTH WILL offer flu shots to students, faculty and staff on Wednesday, Oct. 12 between 1:30 and 3:30 p.m., in the Skutt

Student Center fireplace lounge. The cost is $5 for students, $10 for staff and faculty. Please wear clothing that allows easy access to your upper arm. If you are ill, pregnant or allergic to eggs, you should not get the flu shot. Other appointments are available Monday through Friday, 9 a.m.-5 p.m. For more information, call Student Health, x2735.

"CREATIVE WAYS of Finding and Keeping Faculty and Administrators of Color," an interactive videoconference, will be presented on Wednesday, Oct. 12 from noon-2 p.m. in room L02 of the Reinert Alumni Library. The presentation is open to the campus community. University administrators are especially encouraged to attend. The videoconference is cosponsored by the vice president for Academic Affairs, vice president for Health Sciences, the office of Affirmative Action and the department of Human Resources. For more information, call John Pierce, x3084.

STUDENTS, SPEND Summer '95 in the Dominican Republic: If you want to learn more about the ILAC (Institute for Latin American Concern) program, come to an information session for all arts and sciences, business undergraduates and third year dental, medical, nursing and pharmacy students who are interested in the ILAC Summer Program in the Dominican Republic.

ALL EVENTS TO be put on the CU This Month calendar should be submitted to the Student Activities Office, SC-110, by the 15th of each month. If you have any questions, please contact Lisa Johnson, x1715.

AHCENTERNET PROGRAM: All faculty and staff are invited to hear Dr. Uwe W. Reinhardt, James Madison Professor of political economy at Princeton University, discuss "Health Market Reform and Its Effect on Academic Health Centers." The live, interactive broadcast will be on Wednesday, Oct. 12, 10:30-11:30 a.m. in Criss Health Sciences, room 452 and Saint Joseph Hospital, room 2832.

SOFTWARE CLASSES FOR October are held in the Old Gym 307 training room. Please call x2564 to register. Each class consists of two sessions: DOS Fundamentals—Oct. 12 & 19, 8:15-11:45 a.m.

WordPerfect 6.0 for Windows (beginning)—Oct. 20 & 27, 8:15-11:45 a.m.

THE IGNATIAN JOURNEY series on the spiritual exercises of St. Ignatius, conducted by Fr. Larry Gillick, S.J., begins Oct. 11 at noon in the conference room of lower St. John's Church. The series will continue through Dec. 13. The fifty-minute sessions are open to all members of the University. Call the Deglman Center, x2664, to register.

AUTHOR AND ANALYST, Dr. Murray Stein of Wilmette, IL, will be the keynote speaker at the Jungian symposium to be held at Creighton Oct. 13 through 15. Dr. Stein will speak on "Understanding Yourself Through Dreams and Myth" on Thursday, Oct. 13 at 7 p.m. in the Student Center Ballroom. The international symposium offered by the University College of Creighton and the A.F. Jacobsen Chair in Communications, is entitled, "Psyche at Work: Exploring Jungian Perspectives on Work." Dr. Stein's lecture is free to students, $5 for Creighton faculty and staff. Faculty and staff may attend the full conference at a cost of $65. For more information call the University College, x2888.

FIDELITY REPRESENTATIVE, Nanette Burris, will present two workshops Tuesday, Oct. 11 in the Student Center, room 104 from 11:30 a.m.-12:30 p.m.; and another from 2-3 p.m. The workshops are designed to help employees understand various retirement plan distribution options and are open to all employees, but are especially planned for those age 55 and older. Ms. Burris will also be available for individual, half hour consultations on Oct. 11 and 12. Call Katie Lindgren, x1730, to schedule an appointment.

DISCOUNT TICKETS FOR the Saturday night, Oct. 8, performance of Ballet Omaha's production of "Anne Frank" are available at the Student Center information desk for $17. (The regular price is $21.) For more information, call x1705.

CREIGHTON EMPLOYEES WHO donate to this year's United Way/CHAD campaign by Oct. 13 are eligible to win a wonderful prize in a raffle!

NOMINATIONS DUE TODAY! Please send the names of students to be considered for taking the Spring Jesuit Humanities Program course to Fr. Tom Krettek, S.J., x2643.

CREIGHTON's Distinguished Lecture Series will feature Dr. William John Hoskins, chief of gynecology service in the department of surgery at Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center. Dr. Hoskins will speak on "Ovarian Carcinoma: Current Therapy and Future Perspectives," Wednesday, Oct. 19 at 8 a.m. in the Boys Town National Research Hospital Auditorium, 555 N. 30th St.

THE BLUE NEWS is produced by the Public Relations Office for University employees. Items of interest to the Creighton community should be submitted in writing to the office, with the name and campus phone number of the submitting party, directed to the attention of "Blue News." Items can also be faxed to the department at x2549 or sent via e-mail to gerdes@creighton.edu. The deadline for submitting a news item is 11 a.m., the day before you wish the item to appear. Early submission of items is appreciated.

JOB POSTINGS, as provided by Human Resources: 3rd day—Medical Secretary, OB/GYN, C-09; Television Technician, Biomedical Communications, T-07; 5th day—Administrative Support Secretary, Surgery, C-08; Administrative Support Secretary, Development, C-08.