PROFESSIONAL NOTES: ■ Jim Bothmer, director of the Health Sciences Library (HSL), Cindy Abel, interlibrary loan coordinator of the HSL, and Monica Pereira, reference librarian of the HSL, had an article published in the April 1997 issue of the Bulletin of the Medical Library Association. The article is "The ADONIS Experience: CD-ROM Full-text Access to the Journal Literature in an Academic Health Sciences Library." ■ Fr. Don Doll, S.J., received an Honorary Doctor of Fine Arts degree from Marquette University at the institution's May 18 Commencement. On May 29, he attended a ceremony at the National Press Club where he received the 1997 Kodak Crystal Eagle Award for Impact in Photojournalism. This award is one of the highest possible tributes by professional peers for a photographer's life's work. ■ Dr. Kenneth I. Knowles, associate professor of endodontics, was a featured speaker at the Caribbean Atlantic Regional Dental Association meeting in Belize City, Belize, Central America. ■ On May 3, Dr. Bryan Le Beau, Department of History, was the featured speaker at the Annual Academic Affairs Area Dinner. The title of his talk was "Eunuchs in the Forbidden City, or Scholars in the Academy." ■

Dr. Richard F. "Barry" Murphy, professor of biochemistry, chair of the Department of Biomedical Sciences and holder of the Peekie Nash Carpenter Endowed Chair in Medicine, was named an honorary adjunct professor of biochemistry at the University College of Galway in Ireland. This appointment is given to alumni who have distinguished themselves in their disciplines. ■ Dr. Kenneth L. Wise, associate professor of political science and international studies, was one of 15 persons invited to present papers to the Council of Europe Legal Division's recent conference on citizenship. Dr. Wise presented a study on "The Global Constitution's Requirements for Citizenship in the Global Polity." Dr. Wise also participated in briefings at NATO headquarters in Brussels and presented a series of lectures at Budapest University of Economic Sciences on the "Issues in Enlarging the NATO Alliance."

CME CONFERENCES: The 14th Annual Scientific Session: American Association of Clinical Anatomists (AACA) will be held at the Hawaiian Regent at Waikiki Beach in Honolulu July 8-11. The postgraduate course "Integrating Clinical Anatomy Throughout Medical Education" will be held Saturday, July 12, at the University of Hawaii at Manoa in Honolulu. For more information or to register, contact Continuing Medical Education at x1830.

LABORATORY SAFETY REMINDER:

All mercury "spills," including droplets of mercury from a broken laboratory thermometer, need to be cleaned up following safe and environmentally sound procedures. Prevent the spread of mercury spills. Secure the area around the spill so the mercury does not get "tracked," "splashed," or "kicked" around. Cease activities and keep the area restricted until the spill is cleaned up. For more information, contact Environmental Health and Safety at 546-6404.
