ALPHA SIGMA NU LECTURE: The Rev. Paul C. Reinert, S.J., chancellor emeritus of St. Louis University, will present the 42nd Annual Creighton University Alpha Sigma Nu Lecture on Saturday, April 13, in the Skutt Student Center Ballroom. "Jesuit Higher Education Today and in the Future" is the topic of Reinert's lecture. Tickets to the dinner and lecture, which is open to the public, are $16. A reception is scheduled to begin at 5:30 p.m. with dinner at 6 p.m. Reinert's lecture will begin at 7 p.m. Reinert's younger brother, the Rev. Carl M. Reinert, S.J., served as president of Creighton University from 1950-1962 and is often called Creighton's "second founder" for his development of the University. For more information on the event or reservations, call x2890.

RECEPTION TODAY: Tom Drexler will be leaving his position as the Dominican Republic Semester Abroad Programs coordinator as of June 30. An informal cake and coffee reception will be held in his honor today from 4 to 6 p.m. in the ILAC office, Criss III, Room 473. Please stop by and thank Drexler for his work at Creighton and in the Dominican Republic.

GENERAL ADMISSION Ticket Books for the 1996 College World Series are on sale in the Athletic Department. The Series runs from May 31 through June 8. A booklet of 10 tickets is $25 (a $40 value). Tickets may be upgraded for any single session reserved seat by paying the difference in the admission price at the Stadium Box Office on game day. Reserved seats for the Championship game may be upgraded beginning the first day of the tournament. Checks should be made payable to College World Series. Sorry, but no charges accepted.

CRITICAL ISSUES FORUM: "Same Sex Marriages: Legal, Catholic and Personal Perspectives" will be presented Tuesday, April 16, at 3:30 p.m. in the Reinert Alumni Library, Union Pacific Room. Speakers include Catherine Brooks (Law School), Julia Fleming (Theology), and Matthew Howard (member and former pastor, Metropolitan Community Church, Omaha). Fr. Richard Hauser, S.J., will serve as moderator. Sponsored by the Center for the Study of Religion and Society.

MASSAGE THERAPY: Feeling stressed, muscles tense, need to relax? The Cardiac Center has the answer. Chad Hartl, licensed massage therapist, will be at the Cardiac Center April 16-18 from noon to 8 p.m. to perform massage therapy. Cost is $15 for a half hour back, neck and shoulder massage, and $25 for a full hour body massage. For further information or to set up an appointment, call x4614.

DIET AND HEART DISEASE Lunch-Learn: This one-hour update will review current recommendations for prevention and regression of coronary heart disease. Topics covered will include fats, fiber, cholesterol, sodium, iron, caffeine, weight management, vitamins A, C and E, and more. The class also will include a review of risk factors for heart disease and a review of recommended blood lipid levels and how diet affects total cholesterol, LDL and triglycerides. The class will be held Thursday, April 11, from 11:45 to 12:30 p.m. at the Cardiac Center. Class fee is $7. Call x4929 for more information or to preregister.

HEART HEALTHY BASICS Cooking School: Don't miss this two-hour cooking school which will provide you with all the basics of low-fat, low-cholesterol cooking. This class will demonstrate cooking techniques. Discussion will cover basic recipe modification and substitution guidelines and will highlight cooking tips when using low-fat/non-fat food products. Class participants will receive a handbook of materials highlighting class information and recipes. The class will be held Saturday, April 13, from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. at the Cardiac Center. Class fee is $15 per person or two for $25. Call x4929 for more information or to preregister.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED: The Center for Oral Health Research at the School of Dentistry needs patients for a clinical study on placing white, tooth colored fillings in the bicuspid-molar areas of the mouth. If you think you have tooth decay, broken or old, rough fillings, please call Lisa Enninga at x5044 for a screening appointment. Treatment in this study will be provided free by faculty.

AN ALL-UNIVERSITY reception for faculty and staff, hosted by Dr. Charles Dougherty, vice president for academic affairs, will be held Friday, April 12, from 4 to 6 p.m. in the Skutt Student Center Ballroom.
