"The Promises and Perils of Bible Translation: The New American Bible Revision Project" will be presented by Dr. Deirdre Dempsey from 3:30 to 5 p.m. on Tuesday, Feb. 16, in the Skutt Student Center Ballroom. Dr. Dempsey is from Marquette University and is a member of the New American Bible Editorial Board. Sponsored by the Center for the Study of Religion and the Klutznick Chair in Jewish Civilization.

The Midwest Student Biomedical Research Forum will be held at the DoubleTree Hotel Friday and Saturday, Feb. 19-20. The forum provides a unique opportunity for young scientists to share their work and have it judged from the host schools -- Creighton University School of Medicine and UNMC. For information, contact Lora McCall, Student Affairs, School of Medicine, x2187.

Accessing HIV/AIDS Information Resources: A Public Health Training Network Satellite Broadcast will be carried tomorrow from noon to 2 p.m. in Seminar Room 114 of the Health Sciences Library/Learning Resources Center (HSL/LRC). The focus of this teleconference, co-sponsored by federal and state agencies, will be to provide health professionals with practical information on the searching, evaluation and selection of electronic HIV/AIDS-related resources. If you would like to attend this session or need additional information, please contact Jeanne M. Burke, HSL/LRC education coordinator, at x5143 or by e-mail at jburke@creighton.edu.

The Creighton Dance Team is holding a clinic on Feb. 20 from 9 a.m. until noon in the Old Gym. All girls grades K-8 are welcome and even some younger ones. The girls will learn a dance and will then perform that evening at the men's basketball game. They will be given a game ticket, T-shirt and lunch at the clinic. Questions? Please call Judy Streitz at x2563 or e-mail jstreitz@creighton.edu.

Faculty--Please announce to business/math students: Representatives from Allstate Insurance in Chicago will be on campus tonight to give a presentation on careers in actuarial science. The presentation will be at 8 p.m. in the Skutt Student Center, Room 209.

Laboratory Safety Reminder: Before a new chemical or substance is procured, information on proper handling, storage and disposal should be known to those involved in working with the substance.

National heart month has arrived and spring is just around the corner, so it is time to start taking care of your health and your heart. The perfect way to do both at the same time is by visiting the Human Performance Laboratory (HPL) at Creighton. The HPL is a fitness testing and research facility located in the lower level of the Kiewit Fitness Center. The HPL offers many services including: a Health Fitness Assessment, Exercise Program and Equipment Orientation, Personal Training, Hydrostatic Weighing (Underwater body composition technique), and Skinfold Assessment (body composition technique). All services are by appointment only. If you have any questions or wish to make an appointment, please call x2088.

On Thursday, Feb. 18, at 7 p.m., Omaha area Holocaust survivor Beatrice Karp will be speaking in the Skutt Student Center Ballroom. She will tell her family's story in an effort to further promote the understanding and acceptance of diversity on Creighton's campus. Everyone is welcome and encouraged to attend.

You are needed to participate in a research study. If you are between the ages of 40-65, 1-4 years postmenopausal, and have not had a hysterectomy, you may qualify. Healthy, postmenopausal women are needed to evaluate the effectiveness of estrogen and progestin on menopausal symptoms and osteoporosis. Free benefits include bone density scans, mammograms, gynecologic exams, cholesterol screening and a monetary stipend of up to $1,000. If interested, please contact the Bone Metabolism Unit at x4164.

Auditions for the Department of Fine and Performing Arts Spring Studio Theatre production of "A ... My Name is Alice," a music review conceived by Joan Micklin Silver and Julianne Boyd, will be held in the Studio Theatre of the Lied Education Center for the Arts Monday and Tuesday, Feb. 15 and 16. Audition times are 7:30 p.m. for both nights. There are parts for five women of different ethnic and personality types. It is suggested that women bring a contemporary song (25 bars) to the audition; accompaniment will be provided. Scripts are on reserve in the Reinert Alumni Library. Directed by Theatre Coordinator Alan Klem, the production, which is recommended for mature audiences, will be staged April 27 through May 1. For more information, please call Klem at x2784.

A fund-raising concert for the Joslyn Art Museum featuring classic vocalist Marilyn Maye will be held Saturday, Feb. 20, at 5 p.m. at the Witherspoon Concert Hall at the Joslyn. For a brochure about the event with a $5 off coupon for any ticket purchased, e-mail your name and campus address to Dr. Amy Haddad at ahaddad@creighton.edu. There are balcony seats, general admission seats, and a dinner and concert option.

During the weekend of Feb. 12-14, Creighton will host the first Heartland/Delta Faculty Conversations. About 60 faculty members from the 11 Midwest Jesuit colleges and universities will gather at Creighton. Creighton faculty and staff are welcome to attend either one of the keynote events, both of which will be held in the Skutt Student Center Ballroom. On Friday, Feb. 12, at 8 p.m., John Kavanaugh, S.J., will speak on "The Courage to Be, the Courage to Act: A Spirituality of Truth in the Ignatian Tradition." On Saturday, Feb. 13, at 1:15 p.m., Dr. Ruth Purtilo will speak on "Stepping Forward, Standing Firm: Moral Courage in Jesuit Education Today." Both of these excellent speakers should stimulate a thoughtful discussion centered on Ignatian themes.

A Daily Reflection page and an On-Line Retreat are two web sites you can visit for prayer and reflection. Today's reflection was written by Kathy Kanavy. It can be found at: <http://www.creighton.edu/CollaborativeMinistry/daily.html>. The On-Line Weekly Retreat site features a weekly prayer guide, a photo by Don Doll, S.J., and sample prayers, reading excerpts and some on-line reflecting by participants. Look for it at: <http://www.creighton.edu/CollaborativeMinistry/cmo-retreat.html>.
