Kellogg Foundation. ■ Ginger Parker, instructor of accounting, has been elected vice president of the Omaha Chapter of the Society of Women Accountants. ■ Dr. Deborah Wells, assistant dean and associate professor of management, has been selected to participate in this year's class of Leadership Omaha.

THE SCHOOL OF MEDICINE will hold its annual alumni dinner on Friday, Oct. 6, in the ballroom of the Red Lion Inn, 1616 Dodge St. Cocktails will begin at 6:30 p.m. with dinner to follow at 7:30 p.m. The 1995 Alumni Merit Award for the School of Medicine will be presented to Dr. Richard Q. Crotty, BSM'46, MD'47.

THE MANRESA FORUM breakfast series will present Dr. Robert P. Heaney on Wednesday, Oct. 11, at 7:30 a.m. at the Omaha Club. Dr. Heaney's talk is entitled "Religion: Personal and Private or Public and Social." Cost is $8. Call x2888 by Friday, Oct. 6, for more information or to make a reservation.

RECYCLING UPDATE: The recycling containers are in and have been distributed to participating departments. Remember that blue is for paper and green is for aluminum. Please read the recycling manuals in your blue baskets for details about Creighton's Waste Management Program. Also, please gradually recycle any paper you have saved while waiting for your basket.

INTERNET PLUS 101: "World Wide Web (Mosaic/Netscape)" will be offered on Wednesday, Oct. 4, and Thursday, Oct. 5, beginning at 3 p.m. in the Reinert Alumni Library classroom. WWW uses hypertext to connect many different resources on the Internet, including Gopher and FTP archives. Both the Mosaic and Netscape browsing programs will be demonstrated. No registration is necessary.

THE FACULTY DINING ROOM

menu for this week includes: today—turkey cutlet, beef stir fry and vegetable quiche; tomorrow—sesame pork w/ broccoli, beef enchiladas and pasta w/ Alfredo sauce; Wednesday—turkey pilaf, meatballs and marinara sauce w/ spaghetti; Thursday—stuffed baked potatoes, pesto sauce w/pasta and carved ham; and Friday—meat loaf, vegetable stir fry and stuffed green peppers.

THE 1995 UNITED Way/CHAD Drive is underway at Creighton. Please give the 51 United Way and CHAD agencies your support. Creighton's goal is 100 percent participation by all employees in 1995!

THE PUBLIC HONORS and Events Committee is calling for nominations for the Distinguished Staff Service Award and the Distinguished Faculty/Administrator Award. Nomination forms for both of these awards are available by calling Kathy Dare, x2118.

THE PRESIDENT HAS approved smoke-free designation for the following buildings in the Academic Affairs area, effective immediately: Hitchcock, Fine Arts (Humanities), Rigge, Eppley and the Lied Center. The Law School and the Reinert Alumni Library are already smoke-free, as are all of the Health Sciences Buildings.

ATTENTION NEW CU Faculty/Staff: Take advantage of the special discount on all Human Performance Laboratory services (percent body fat testing, fitness assessments and much more). Call the Human Performance Laboratory at x2493 or x2494 for more information or to schedule an appointment.

BE AWARE OF phony telephone solicitations offering goods and services. Departments are again receiving calls offering long-distance service, printer toner and/or ribbons, copier supplies, and fax paper. A new strategy is being used whereby solicitors propose free samples of their products. If you receive such a call, immediately transfer the caller to the Purchasing Department, x2712. Also, if you receive merchandise or an invoice for merchandise you did not order, contact Purchasing.

WARM UP AMERICA Program: Anyone interested in knitting or crocheting "squares" for afghans to be given to local area shelters is invited to meet for a brown bag lunch tomorrow from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. in Room 131 of the School of Dentistry. A small supply of yarn has been donated to use for this project. For additional information, please call Marletta McKercher, x5054.
