FRIDAY, FEB. 7, 1997

BANNER DROP-IN CLASS: On Friday, Feb. 14, review your Banner skills—basic queries, on-line requisitions, commodities, rollup screens, purchase order/invoice reconciliation and navigation shortcuts—in the Old Gym, Classroom 401. Jan Podoll will be there between 9:30 and 11:30 a.m. to help you with your Banner screen. Drop by at your convenience and have a Valentine treat. Please call Podoll at x2946 if you plan to attend and let her know what you want to review.

CENTERNET: All faculty, staff and students are invited to attend "NIH Grand Rounds" CME presentations on Wednesday, Feb. 12, 11 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. in the Criss Health Sciences Building, Room 248/249. Dr. Steven E. Hyman will present "How Drugs Change Your Mind: A Molecular Approach to Psychotropic Drug Action." Dr. Hyman is director of the National Institute of Mental Health and director of the Section on Molecular Plasticity at the National Institute of Neurological Disorder and Stroke. Dr. Robert Nussenblatt, scientific director at the National Eye Institute, will present "Oral Tolerance: The Nei Diet for Better Vision." As with all CenterNet programs, the broadcast will be live with audience interaction.

DO YOU STILL need help with that New Year's Resolution? If so, the Creighton Human Performance Laboratory offers a variety of fitness tests, equipment orientations and personal training to help you begin a fitness program. Why wait? Call today at x2493.

Announcements from the Center for the Study of Children's Issues

"COLLOQUIUM ON CHILDREN:" The Center for the Study of Children's Issues announces a call for proposals for its first annual "Colloquium on Children" to be held Wednesday, April 23, from 8:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. in the Skutt Student Center Ballroom. This event is intended to increase awareness of activities concerning or benefiting children that are carried out by Creighton faculty, staff, students and/or organizations (e.g., scholarly research; classes; educational, artistic, spiritual, and service projects, etc.). Presentations will include posters of research and projects, art exhibits, small group discussions, readings regarding children or media presentations. If you, your students, your department or a campus organization would like to be included, please request a Colloquium proposal form from Dr. Nancy Walker, Department of Psychology, at nwalker@creighton.edu or x3181.

SMALL GRANTS-IN-AID: The Center for the Study of Children's Issues also announces the availability of small grants-in-aid (up to $1,000) for interdisciplinary research on issues related to infants, children and/or adolescents. Awards for Summer 1997 will be offered to full-time faculty of the University who evidence the potential for completing the proposed work in a timely fashion. Projects should be initiated during the summer of 1997 and should be completed within 12 months. Applications are due May 15. If you have questions or would like application materials, please contact Dr. Nancy Walker, Department of Psychology, at nwalker@creighton.edu or x3181.
