CREIGHTON
UNIVERSITY

FRIDAY, SEPT. 5, 1997

ATTENTION FACULTY, staff and administrators in the Academic Affairs Division: The deadline for nominations for the William F. Kelley, S.J., Achievement Awards is Friday, Sept. 12. Please submit nominations to the Academic Vice President's Office. Named after Creighton's first academic vice president, the awards are given annually at the Academic Vice President's Convocation. This year's convocation is scheduled for Oct. 16 in the Skutt Student Center Ballroom from 4 to 6 p.m. The purpose of the awards is to recognize outstanding collaborative efforts and achievements of employees within the Academic Affairs area. For additional nomination forms, contact Laurel McClure at x4076.

THE OFFICE OF Undergraduate Admissions will be hosting the first of two Open Houses during the Fall semester on Sunday, Sept. 14, from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. on the Creighton campus. Throughout the day, approximately 600 visitors, prospective high school seniors and their families will be participating in various activities. For more information, please contact Monique Donahoe, x2703.

EFFECTIVE IMMEDIATELY, the purchase of copy paper has been placed under the direction of the Purchasing Department. Quotations were solicited and, as a result, the cost of purchasing a case of letter size white copy paper has been reduced to $19.80. This price is guaranteed for 90 days. If Pay-LESS suppliers increase paper costs, then Creighton's cost will be increased the same amount. A similar saving for other colors and sizes also will be available. A contract has been signed with Pay-LESS Office Supply to provide Creighton's paper on an "as needed" basis. Under the terms of the contract, Pay-LESS will provide paper by the case. Order the paper like you would office supplies. Use your current Open Purchase Order or Visa card. If ordered before 3 p.m., your order will be delivered the following morning. If you order in quantities greater than 10 cases, Pay-LESS will deliver directly to your department. At the present time, specialty papers, such as card stock or special colors, should be ordered through Varsity Press. If you have any questions, contact Ed DuPree in Purchasing at x2795.

EMPLOYEE DEVELOPMENT Program Update: Due to an overwhelming response, the following class is closed: "Writing with Technology," Oct. 14. The following class (offered on two dates) has a limited number of openings: "Building a High Performance Team," Sept. 17 and 24. All other classes are open for registration. For more information, please call Joan Howard, University College, x2888.

THE CREIGHTON UNIVERSITY Pre-Hospital Education Office is looking for programs or upcoming events that require volunteers to fulfill "community service" requirements. The students are EMT's and are continuing their education in the Intermediate/Paramedic fields. Part of their training requires 10-20 hours of community service. If you have any programs or scheduled events where volunteer help is needed or would like to know more about the Pre-Hospital Education program, please contact Laurie Bier at x1282.

THE GOSPEL CHOIR will practice every Monday from 6 to 8 p.m. at the Lied Education Center for the Arts. Practices begin Monday, Sept. 8. All are welcome.

MANRESA FORUM: "How Much Should Busy People Pray? Some Lessons from St. Ignatius" will be presented by Andy Alexander, S.J., on Wednesday, Sept. 10, at 7:30 a.m. at the Omaha Club, 2002 Douglas St. Fr. Alexander will talk about how Ignatian spirituality is wonderfully suited for active lives. Rather than feeling guilty about not having time for prayer, Fr. Alexander will explore how people can practice finding effective intimacy with God in the midst of their busy lives. Cost is $8. Breakfast is available beginning at 7:15 a.m. RSVP to x2888.

THE 4TH ANNUAL LECTURE in Celebration of Our Ignatian Heritage will be held Thursday, Sept. 18, at 3:30 p.m. in the Skutt Student Center Ballroom (reception following the lecture). Thomas Patrick O'Malley, S.J., will present "Bare Ruined Choirs? Sing to the Lord a New Song." Fr. O'Malley, the 13th president of Loyola Marymount University, is a classicist, theologian, academician, administrator and priest. Fr. O'Malley will share his thoughts on the future of the Catholic Jesuit university. Fr. Morrison has granted release time for this event. If you plan to attend, send your reservation (attached to the brochure sent through intercampus mail) by Tuesday, Sept. 9, to the Office of the President.

IGNATIAN ASSOCIATES: A new formation group of Ignatian Associates will begin in October, following information meetings, interviews and screening during September. The Ignatian Associates is an experiment in lay association with the Society of Jesus. It provides a supportive, intentional faith community for persons engaged in ministry who find themselves nurtured and challenged by Ignatian spirituality and who wish to form a closer bond with the Society of Jesus by sharing the Jesuit mission. Information meetings will be held at the Associates Community House at 4932 California St. at 7 p.m. on Friday, Sept. 12, and at 5 p.m. on Sunday, Sept. 14. References and letters of intent from interested applicants should be sent by Friday, Sept. 26, to Ignatian Associates Formation at the community house address. To register for an information night or to talk with someone about the program, call Linda Schlafer at 551-4813 or send an e-mail to schlafer@creighton.edu.

SCHOOL OF MEDICINE Distinguished Lecture Series: Dr. Mark E. Frisse will present "Why Computers Don't Work" on Wednesday, Sept. 17, from noon to 1 p.m. at the Boys Town National Research Hospital Auditorium, 555 N. 30th St. A reception follows at 1:15 p.m. Dr. Frisse is director of The Bernard Becker Medical Library and associate dean for Academic Information Management at the Washington University School of Medicine in St. Louis. For more information, contact Continuing Medical Education, x1830.

LABORATORY SAFETY REMINDER: Whenever possible use combustible liquids in preference to flammables. Flammable liquids have a flash point less than 100 degrees Fahrenheit. For more information, contact Environmental Health and Safety at 546-6404.

GROUP LEADERS: Please make your reservations for the Freshmen Seminar Library Extravaganza as soon as possible. This would help with the library's planning efforts. Two dates and times are available: Tuesday, Sept. 9, 2:30 or 3:30 p.m., and Wednesday, Sept. 17, 2:30 or 3:30 p.m. The extravaganza will offer tours, demos, food and door prizes. If these dates do not fit your schedule, contact Chris Le Beau, x1757, clbeau@creighton.edu, to discuss other orientation options for freshmen.

THE NEXT MEETING of the Creighton University Black Employee Network will be on Tuesday, Sept. 9, at 4:30 p.m. in the Business Administration Building, Room 314. All current and new members are welcome.

APPLICATION FORMS for the Faculty/Staff Talent Show, sponsored by the Staff Advisory Council, are now available. They can be picked up, mailed or faxed. Contact Shirley Spain, x2300; Colleen Hendrick, x5520; Mary Pat Wearne, x4582; or Kathy Dare, x2118. Forms need to be returned by Oct. 1.
