Her experience includes faculty and other appointments at the State University of New York. This presentation will discuss the need to create new ways of delivering higher education that respond to the new definition of learning and that overcome the shortcomings of the current one-size-fits-all approach to teaching.

The Creighton Medical Student Government, in conjunction with Saint Joseph Hospital and Play It Again Sports, will be sponsoring the 14th Annual 10k Run/2-mile walk and 5.5-mile in-line skating event on Saturday, Oct. 3. All proceeds from the $13 entry fee will be donated in full to the Make-A-Wish Foundation of Nebraska, a non-profit organization which grants wishes to children with life-threatening illnesses. Please help make dreams come true by supporting this event. Entry forms are available in the Medical Dean's Office, Kiewit Fitness Center, the Skutt Student Center and at the front desk of all residence halls. Entry forms also are available via the world wide web by clicking on the link "CMSG Make-A-Wish Walk/Run" on the School of Medicine Homepage found at <http://medicine.creighton.edu>.

The Nebraska Choral Arts Society announces its Masterworks Concert Series celebrating its 20th anniversary season. The five concert dates are: Oct. 17 (7 p.m.), Nov. 1 (4 p.m.), Christmas concerts Dec. 18 (7 p.m.) or Dec. 19 (2 and 7:30 p.m.), March 6 (7:30 p.m.) and May 8 (7 p.m.). Tickets for all five concert dates are $40 ($35 student/senior) plus tax/handling. Please contact David Schultenover (x2199, dnover@creighton.edu) for a subscription brochure/information.

Internet on Demand is a program through which faculty and student groups may request a specially tailored class on any Internet related topic. In addition to the topics featured in this semester's Internet 101 schedule, Reinert Alumni librarians are prepared to teach classes on a wide range of other topics. Internet One-on-One is offered to individuals who need special help or who cannot attend group sessions due to schedule conflicts. For more information, contact David Sherwood (x2927 or davids@creighton.edu) or Chris Le Beau (x1757 or clbeau@creighton.edu).

Organize your own corner of cyberspace. Learn how to create a personal home page using HTML (Hypertext Markup Language), with links to sites you use every day. This two-hour hands-on session will be held in the Old Gym, room 411, on Friday, Sept. 18, from 3-5 p.m. Due to limited space, please reserve your place in the class by sending e-mail to David Sherwood (davids@creighton.edu). Reservations are not required for other Internet 101 classes.

It's River City Roundup Time! Festivities begin Sept. 23 and run through Sept. 28. This is the 17th anniversary of one of the largest annual community celebrations in the Midwest. Roundup buttons, which entitle you to free or reduced prices on many attractions, are available for $2 (cash only, please) from the Human Resources Department in the Wareham Building, 2222 Burt St. Purchase a button and join in the fun!

Anyone planning to come to the Creighton Retreat Center in Griswold, Iowa, should ignore the signs of "detour" and "bridges out." You are local traffic. Come straight in on Highway 92.

The Coffee House will be featuring a different wrap sandwich each day this week. Today's feature is "render unto caesar" and comes with chips or carrot sticks. The soup today is roasted pepper. Top off your meal with a homemade biscotti.

Dr. Brian Laird of the University of Kansas will speak on the topic of "Simulating the Crystal-Liquid Interface" at the Department of Chemistry Seminar on Thursday, Sept. 17, 11 a.m in Rigge Science 316.

Habitat Fact of the Day: Use of government funds-Habitat works in partnership with government in many places, but government funds cannot be accepted for actual construction expenses or general operating expenses of a project.

On-Line Daily Reflections are back on the Collaborative Ministry Office web site. The popular daily service features a reflection on the scripture readings of the day written by a member of the Creighton community. Today's reflection was written by Ted Bohr, S.J. The link to the CMO Daily Reflection page can be found at: <http://www.creighton.edu/CollaborativeMinistry/daily.html>
