The University's 1999 United Way/CHAD Campaign begins today with a kick-off luncheon for the volunteer team captains. The theme, "Caring that Counts," stresses the important role individuals play in this campaign--every gift makes a difference. Dollars raised will benefit many organizations and programs in the Omaha/Council Bluffs area.

Fr. Dean Brackley, S.J., of the University of Central America, will present "The Christian University and Solidarity: The Legacy of the Jesuit Martyrs of El Salvador" as the 1999 Markoe-DePorres Social Justice Lecture. Fr. Brackley's presentation will commemorate the 10th anniversary of the assassinations of six Jesuit professors (including the rector/president), their housekeeper and her daughter by the Salvadoran military on Nov. 16, 1989. The lecture is Monday, Oct. 4, at 7:30 p.m. in the Skutt Student Center Ballroom, and is sponsored by the Justice and Peace Studies Program and the College of Arts and Sciences. Fr. Brackley also will speak about his book, Divine Revolution: Salvation and Liberation in Catholic Thought, at a brown-bagger sponsored by the Theology Club at 12:30 p.m. on Oct. 4 in the Union Pacific Room. All are invited. For more information, contact Roger Bergman, x1492, rbjps@creighton.edu.

Creighton senior Danielle Young will be making her debut this Saturday morning as the voice of "Betty" in a brand new animated series of the celebrated all-American cartoon "Archie." The new series, titled "Archie's Weird Mysteries," is produced by DIC Entertainment, a subsidiary of Disney (same company that did "Inspector Gadget"). The show has been described as "The X-Files" meets "Scooby-doo" and promises to be a delight and a big hit with both younger and older audiences. The show will air for the first time this Saturday morning at 7 a.m. on Cox Cable Channel 57 (PAX).

The minutes for the Staff Advisory Council September meeting are posted on the SAC Web site: <http://www.creighton.edu/sac>. If you do not have Internet access, contact your representative. If you do not know who your representative is, contact Fran Foss at ffoss@creighton.edu or x1253.

Therese Vaughn has been promoted to director of development communications. Vaughn has served as the assistant director of development communications since May of 1998. She will be responsible for written communications as well as the research, writing and submitting of funding proposals.
